BISHOP CARROLL’S THANKSGIVING MESSAGE FROM ECUMENICAL COUNCIL

Thank God For Our Blessings As Free Americans

VATICAN CITY

To the Priests, Religious and Laity of the Diocese:

I am most happy to unite with you in publicly expressing to Almighty God our gratitude this Thanksgiving Day for so many extraordinary blessings granted to our Church and our country.

As we come to a clearer realization of the slavery of communism we must be all the more grateful to God for the unusual advantages of being Americans living and growing in an atmosphere of freedom with regard to both religion and politics.

During these past tense weeks we have found reason to be grateful for the firm stand of our President and leaders against possible communist aggression. However, at the same time, we ardently hope that such a courageous, forthright attitude will remain our policy and may never be found lacking when our nation is threatened.

This Thanksgiving Day will be observed in the year of the Ecumenical Council. The promise of manifold blessings this solemn gathering holds out for all mankind surely fills us with new hope and deeper gratitude as we face the months and years ahead.

I am certain that we will be of one mind this Thanksgiving Day in offering fervent prayers to God to thank Him for the mercies and favors of the past and to implore His continued blessings of peace and the courage of our convictions in the future.

Imparting to you my paternal blessing, I remain

Devotedly yours in Christ,

Council Speeds Action On Liturgy

It traces back to the conversion of the Western Slavs by Sts. Cyril and Methodius in the 9th century.

The use of Old Slavonic in the Roman Rite fell into disuse in the late Middle Ages, but was recognized by the Council of Trent in the 16th century. The liturgical books were revised under St. Pius X and their use made widespread by Pope Pius XI.

A proposal that the name of Extreme Unction be changed was speeded up sessions of the council.

The speed-up during the 13th, 14th and 15th general meetings of the council followed the permission granted by Bishop of Treves to close debate by a vote.

After spending more than two weeks on the project, and after the first two chapters of the liturgical proposals which dealt with the Mass in general and the Mass — the council completed the discussion of the third chapter of the sacraments and its amendments in less than a day and the fourth on the Holy Office and the breviary in less than two days.

A MEDITATIVE ATTITUDE is reflected on the face of Pope John XXIII as he brings his right hand to his eyes during eucharistic ceremonies at St. Peter's Basilica. The Pontiff recently marked the fourth anniversary of his coronation as Pope. The Holy Father will be 81 on Nov. 25.

Board To Keep Pope Posted On World Opinion

VATICAN CITY (NC) — The possible establishment of an international board of bishops to give the pope a better idea of the thoughts of Catholics throughout the world has been discussed here.

The discussion took place at a meeting of newsmen and the panel of experts set up to assist them cover the Ecumenical Council by the Bishops of the U.S. through the Rome office of the National Catholic Welfare Conference.

Father Edward Heston, C.S.C., procurator general of the Holy Roman Curia, spoke during a discussion of the possibility of the internationalization of the Roman curia — the Vatican administrative staff. Father Heston said that there have been some suggestions of setting up a permanent organization similar to the council's Central Preparatory Commission, which was composed of cardinals and bishops from all parts of the world.

Father Heston reported that Pope John XXIII told a bishop, who in turn told him, that the reason that all the bishops of the Central Preparatory Commission had been called to Rome was so that the Pope could learn the thoughts of the cardinals from abroad. He said the Pontiff was already aware of the opinions of the cardinals but wanted to know the thoughts of others as well.

On Seminary Collection

To the Priests, Religious and Laity of the Diocese:

Once again I bring to your attention the annual collection for the maintenance and operation of St. John Vianney Seminary. This year the collection will be taken up in all parishes on Sunday, November 18th.

Our minor seminary presently houses and trains 200 seminarians. With the completion of our newest addition, the beautiful college building, we will have a student capacity of 250.

Many parents of our seminarians are making great sacrifices, as traditionally parents of future priests have always done, to pay at least part of their board and tuition. Others because of family obligations cannot do so.

The balance, which represents an enormous sum, has been taken care of by your most generous contributions in the past, so that St. John Vianney Seminary has indeed been operated and maintained as we all would want it to be. Moreover, you have also in the past assumed and fulfilled the responsibility of providing the means of support of 80 other seminarians of the diocese, all of whom are in major seminaries either in this country or abroad.

I have often expressed my profound gratitude to you for your love of the Priesthood and the Seminary as proven so eloquently by your noteworthy generosity in past years. This fact gives us most heartening assurance that in this present collection you will enable us to meet the heavy cost of maintenance and operation.

Imparting to you my paternal blessing, I remain

Devotedly yours in Christ,

Bishop of Miami

Pope John Visits Bedside Of His Dying Physician

ROME (AP) — The personal physician of Pope John XXIII has died.

Dr. Filippo Rocchi, who was also house physician of the North American College, suffered a cerebral hemorrhage and died at Villa Stuart clinic here eight hours later.

Pope John was informed as soon as it was known that the doctor's condition was serious. The Pope went immediately to the doctor's bedside, but he was already in a coma. The Pope was present as the hospital chaplain administered the last rites. Pope John gave his blessing to his dying physician and to members of the doctor's family who were present.

Dr. Rocchi, 62, was known at the North American College here for many years both as a friend and as a physician. He attended St. Mary's College of Chicago and Edward Cardinal Mooney of Detroit at their deathbeds here in 1958.

Choosing a family burial place is inevitable. It can be done when there is a death — a time of sorrow and confusion; or it can be done NOW, thoughtfully and at your own convenience.

Someone MUST do it. Unless it is a planned decision now, your family may have to depend on the judgment of a friend, or even a stranger, to select in haste and hope he will not disappoint those who will be the most frequent visitors.

Death is a time of stress. Many things must be done quickly with little time to think them through. Selecting your burial place is one of the few that can be done in advance to relieve future strain.

Death is a time of expense — a strain on finances often needed for family re-adjustment. Selecting now can relieve a financial problem later when such problems are a real burden.

Selection of a final resting place is a sacred family duty, an investment far surpassed by the satisfaction of knowing that you have assured protection for your loved ones. Until recently, above ground entombment was reserved for the wealthy and the great because of its cost. Today you may own crypts in Our Lady of Mercy Mausoleum at a cost in some instances no greater than earth burial. There is no lot, no vault, no expensive monument. Your investment provides permanence and protection in an inspiring beautiful Catholic Memorial to you and your dearest ones — growing lovelier by endowed care at no extra cost to you.

CRYPTS MAY BE SELECTED NOW . . .

At low pre-completion prices that are comparable to choicest burial plots, with convenient monthly payment plans, while desirable selections are available.

World Is Facing A Showdown On Good, Evil, Bishop Assists

ROME (NO) — "The world is very remotely preparing for apocalyptic times or the final struggle between good and evil," said Auxiliary Bishop J. Sheen of New York said here.

Bishop Sheen discussed the ecumenical council's impact on the world and the Church at a luncheon of the American Women's Association of Rome.

The Bishop said the day of heresies is over. "There will no longer be a splintering of Christian truth," he declared, but added: "We are living in a time when the world is beginning to divide into two societies.

WORLD DIVISION

One of these societies, he noted, is anti-God, antipersonal and antimoral. "This society is largely communist inspired," he continued, "but its members are not in Russia alone. There are many sympathizers in anti-communist lands."

Pope John XXIII saw this division of the world, Bishop Sheen said, "and called a council to rally all men who believe in the truth, morality, decency, God, Christ and the Church into a more compact unity."

"Though all may not subscribe to all the beliefs of Christianity," he went on, "nevertheless they are grouping or walking in that direction."

"Thus," he declared, "the world is very remotely preparing for apocalyptic times or the final struggle between good and evil."

DISTANT FUTURE

"The battle lines of the distant future are being drawn by this council. The other society which persecutes the Church has already grouped men under the militant banner of atheism."

"The council is a summum bonum to mankind and the salvation of their own solid and solidarity in the things of the spirit."

In its impact on the Church, Bishop Sheen said, one of the effects of the council will be a change in both bishops of prosperous countries and the bishops of underprivileged countries. He stated:

"In this council they confront one another, as abundance and need is in the material sense, as need and abundance in the spiritual sense."

"Bishops of the rich countries will help give their bishops of the poorer countries and the bishops of the underprivileged countries. He stated:

ARGENTINE BISHOP PRAISES RITES FOR PRIESTLESS AREAS

ROME (NC) — A semi-spiritual ceremony for Sundays in priestless areas of Argentina has brought about "the renovation of Christian life in our diocese," an Argentine bishop has said.

Bishop Jorge Kemerer, S.V.D., of Posadas, Argentina, told a press conference here that he has proposed to the council that "the Church dignify this Sunday service by recognizing it as a genuine liturgical act in the strict sense."

Bishop Kenorner said his diocese has more than 4,000,000 people spread over 11,400 square miles. He said that in many parts there is only one priest for every 6,000 to 7,000 people, and in some places there is only one for every 10,000.

LAYMEN USED

Concerned that the people were left without religious instruction and alarmed by the attraction which Protestant services hand for his faithful, the Bishop began a service conducted by chosen laymen in Holy Week, 1959. Five other dioceses in Argentina have adopted the ceremony, the Bishop said.

This year, Sunday services were held in 62 villages on all the Sundays of Lent as well as during Holy Week and on the Sundays after Pentecost, he added.

The Bishop explained that the service is conducted by a man or woman who is called a "guide" who leads the congregation in responses to prayers. Laymen for the service are selected by parish priests and then delegates are elected by the congregation. Elected delegates are then trained, usually by the Bishop himself.

SPECIAL HONOR

"The service opens by giving special honor to the Word of God," the Bishop said. "Is done in each morning in the general sessions of the ecumenical council. A rather large book of the Gospels is carried to the center of the altar and is laid open in a bookstand between two burning candles. By this action the congregation is made to realize that, although Christ is not sacramentally present due to lack of a priest, He is present to them through His Word."

Our Thanks To God Are Often Forgotten In 'Busy Living'

Americans are now preparing to celebrate their 350th Thanksgiving over tables laden with delicacies which would have been unbelievable to the Pilgrims.

At that first Thanksgiving, our forefathers were happy and hungry, and grateful to those who died in the hostile wilderness so they could survive; grateful, too, to the strange, helpful Indians who shared their tables, and above all, thankful to God.

Are the Indians and the wilderness and — all too often — the prayers of Thanksgiving. What has happened?

Some observers of religious custom believe that the recitation of grace before meals has been affected by our abundance of food and hectic schedules. The Pilgrims had to struggle, some from hunger and thirst, and had to go out and actually hunt their Thanksgiving turkeys,

"Preparing for Thanksgiving was a whole year's work... Today, a short trip to the supermarket and your harvest is in. Our bounty, in many instances, is taken for granted."

In a time of world troubles, the daily reminders that there is a Giver of gifts, a Power greater than ourselves, is in. Our bounty, in many instances, is taken for granted."

Strange But True

Pessimism On An-Test Ban Alien To Papal Teaching

By J. J. GILBERT

WASHINGTON — Events in three widely separated places — the United Nations, the Pacific and Cuba — have turned Washington's attention once again to the long-stalemated nuclear test ban talks.

The UN General Assembly earlier this month endorsed 75 clear test ban talks.

It is, of course, the issue of the future of convert work that has made it amply clear that the Pope before the council had found that this meeting of the bishops would not be for a condemnation of errors but for the purpose of stressing the truth, the positive ideas needed by all men. This, he declared, would be a starting point for unity in the future.

The General Assembly also has adopted by a vote of 51-10 Jan. 1. a resolution urging nuclear powers to seek “speedy settlement” of issues arising from the ban and to halt all tests by Jan. 1.

The General Assembly also has adopted by a vote of 51-10 a resolution urging nuclear powers to seek "speedy settlement" of issues arising from the ban and to halt all tests by Jan. 1.

Observers here, noting this exchange between the President and the Premier, felt that the perilous confrontation over Cuba between the super-powers might have moved more than months of negotiation to hammer home an awareness of just how urgent is the need for reducing or removing the threat of nuclear war.

But if more than four years of U.S.-British Soviet test ban talks have done anything, they have made it amply clear that a mutually acceptable agreement is going to be desperately hard to achieve.

WHAT'S THE USE?

Indeed, the length of the negotiations and the many disappointments and reversals that have accompanied them have made it easy to take a "What's the use?" attitude toward the entire subject.

Nothing, however, could be more alien than such pessimism to the teaching on peace of the late Pope Pius XII and Pope John XXIII.
TRUTH OF THE MATTER

By FR. KILIAN McGOWAN, C.P.

The capital sin of envy is sadness, in the presence of another's goodness or beauty. This sin makes us delight in the goodness of another as though it were our own, and envies and even resents the excellence of our neighbor. Seeing another's goodness, envy is a perverse kind of selfishness that warps the personality of the sinner, and shows his spiritual blindness.

This spiritual blindness falls to see in the perfections and prosperity of another an earthly and material beauty of God. It causes discontent with one's own blessings and even resentment against Divine Providence Who has been even more bountiful with some than with others.

Essentially, envy is an inner sin. However, it has external symptoms by which its presence can be detected. These symptoms are carefully watched lest envy find a place in our own hearts.

1) Envy begins with sadness over another's excellence as we compare it with the one afflicted. It's caused because the other's virtues are considered to be a threat to one's own imagined or real excellence. 2) It leads, if uncombatted, to whisperings against the one who is envied. This vice makes you doubt the goodness and prosperity achieved by under-privileged persons. It's that it steals away the neighbor's most treasured possession — his reputation.

3) Open or subtle destruction is one of the more obvious signs of envy. The envious person becomes a character — assistance of the one he envies. He looks for opportunities to destroy his public virtues and even of him.

4) Undenied, envy will finally join hands with the devil in repressing the mistakes of the one he envies, and satisfaction when he falls into sin.

Algerians Seize Cathedral, Transform It Into a Mosque

ALGERS (NC) — The Algerian government has taken over St. Philip's cathedral here for use as a Moslem mosque.

Although church and government authorities had agreed in principle on the gradual takeover of Catholic churches and the Algiers archdiocesan offices, no specific date had been set for the transfer.

While negotiations were under way, Algerian workers came to the cathedral and began work to turn it into a Moslem mosque.

Cardinal: Against Chinese communist aggression

Valerian Cardinal Gracias, Archbishop of Bombay, told a congregation at the pro-cathedral here that he did not want to “sound alarmist” but that he was being a “realist” in the present threat to India. He pledged the support of Catholics in the government’s stand against Chinese attacks.

BOMÀBY (NC) — India’s Cardinal has warned Catholics here to help now with money, clothes and gold in the fight against Chinese communist aggression so that they will not have to “give up their lives” later.

The Cardinal has warned Catholics that he was being a “realist” against Chinese communist aggression that he had a midnight audience with Pope John XXIII shortly after reports of Chinese aggression had appeared in the press. The Cardinal said that he told the Pope of the attacks and explained the background of the clash. The two decided that the Cardinal should be in India during the crisis, and he flew here from Rome “to boost the morale of the people.”

Cardinal Gracias said he delivered a personal message from the Pope to Prime Minister Nehru and also held a 45-minute interview with the Indian leader. The message was sent in answer to Nehru’s appeal for peace.

The Archbishop of Bombay has given 25,000 rupees ($5250) for the defense fund, the Cardinal said.

Cardinal Gracias said that a “miracle of unity” had come about overnight in the country. There has not been such a sense of unity among the different segments of the community in the 15 years since Indian independence, he said. Rivalries gave way to a closing of ranks against the common enemy.

Expressed sympathy

Nearly 50 per cent of the world’s Christian countries are in sympathy with India, he said, and added that the Fathers at the Vatican council had expressed sympathy for the country.

Thousands of Catholics took part in religious processions in the principal churches of Bombay to pray for peace.

Auxiliary Bishop Longtians G. Pereira of Bombay issued a circular before the return of Cardinal Gracias, to be read in all churches of the archdiocese asking prayer and sacrifice for the defense of the country and for peace.

The circular also urged support for the National Defense Fund. Bishop Pereira is on the defense fund committee set up by the Chief Minister of the State of Maharashtra.

India’s Catholic Bishops’ Conference issued a joint pastoral from Rome urging that Catholics cooperate with the government “to the fullest extent and willingness, with all the hard ships and sacrifices involved in the present situation.”

Red Agent Says He Shot Priest With Cyanide Gun

LONDON (NC) — Scotland Yard and Interpol (International police) have investigated reports that Father Henryk Borynski, a Polish priest who disappeared in Bradford, Yorkshire, nine years ago was murdered by a communist agent.

The investigation was begun following the alleged confession of Bogdan Staniszykis, who has been sentenced to eight years imprisonment by a West German court for murdering two Ukrainian exiles.

It is alleged that Staniszykis said that he had killed Father Borynski with a cyanide spray and buried his body on Ilkley Moor, a vast desolate area in Yorkshire.

On July 13, 1953, Father Borynski, who was chaplain to the Polish community in Bradford, visited the Bradford home of Father Martinei, who, though not a Pole, had been chaplain to the Poles until he was replaced by Father Borynski.

Later that day, Father Borynski received a telephone call at his home, went out and was never seen again. Bradford’s police called in Scotland Yard but not a clue was found.

About three weeks after Father Borynski’s disappearance, Father Martinei was found on his study floor in a state of collapse. On his desk were spelled out with matchsticks the Polish words “Be silent, priest.”

At first Father Martinei said he was attacked by two men. Later he said that the attack may have been the hallucinations brought on by exhaustion. Father Martinei died two years later.

Police close to Father Borynski believe that the secret of his disappearance lies with Father Martinei. They think that Father Borynski went to confession to him the afternoon he disappeared and that Father Martinei was not able to say what he knew because of the seal of the confession.

Borynski escaped from Poland during World War II and served as a priest with the Allied armies. Then he went to Bradford to look after the Polish exiles there. He was very popular with them and noted for his hatred of communism.

Mount St. Mary Alumni Honor Bishop J. E. Walsh

EMMETSBURG, MD. (N.C.) — Bishop James E. Walsh, M.M., who is serving a 28-year sentence in a Chinese Communist prison, has been honored by the national alumni association of Mount St. Mary's College which awarded him its second Dallin Medal for distinguished public service. Bishop Walsh is a member of the class of 1913.

The medal was accepted for the Bishop by his brother, Judge William C. Walsh of Cumberland, Md.

The medal is a test of strength between the school of the parents' choice. The money could be spent at independent schools. "It's the battle in the Ninth District," Murphy said.

This was the report by Mark Murphy of Flashing, N. Y., national vice-president of the CEF, a non-sectarian organization which backs inclusion of parochial and other private school pupils in proposals for Federal aid to education. It favors tuition grants to parents.

The New York CEF was the only branch of the 25,000-member national organization to endorse candidates, although other chapters publicized candidate's positions on Federal aid, especially in Michigan, Missouri, Wisconsin, Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky, Rhode Island, Connecticut and New York.

Murphy singled out the re-election of Rep. James J. Delaney of New York as a key victory.

Murphy said that Delaney, whose vote in the House Rules Committee in 1961 killed the major proposal for Federal aid to public schools, was actively opposed by Protestants and Other Americans United for Separation of Church and State (POAU). He also lost the backing of New York's Liberal party.

"The battle in the Ninth District," Murphy said, "was pure..." a test of strength between the public — schools only forces of the Liberal party and the POAU and the aroused parents and friends of children in independent schools."

Delaney, who won re-election by the largest plurality in his career, is sponsor of the House of the CEF-backed "Junior GI Bill," for Federal aid to education.

It would grant a flat $30 to parents for each child in school. The money could be spent at the school of the parents' choice.

CEF — supported candidates who won are: Delaney, Hugh L. Carey, James B. Graver, Steve B. Downswin, Frank J. Becker and William E. Miller.
CIVIL DEFENSE role of the clergy and churches was discussed during a recent meeting of the Chaplains Council on Civil Defense held at the Dade County Jail. Father Donald F. X. Connolly, chief of chaplains, presented an address attended by clergy of all faiths.

MSGR. WALSH REPORTING

Council And Unity Question

Father Ben he was personal confessor for both Pius XI and Pius XII.

Pope John recognized his extraordinary record in proclaiming him a cardinal at the Consistory of Dec. 17, 1959.

Incidentally, the Cardinal revealed to the newsmen at his press meeting some of his secret for winning cooperation from everyone. Is a most friendly and simple way, he begged the reporters "to give the council Fathers a hand, to be in this monumental work." He asked them to make the aims of the council understood and to be "judicious in repeating criticisms."

He said frankly, "There is, of course, no need to shut one's eyes to the human shortcomings and limitations, which one may discover, when they are truly present."

He urged them too to remember that each bishop has a country of his own, but he is "clothed with Christ" and therefore is dedicated to the needs of the whole church and the world. He said this in order to warn them against writing from a spirit of nationalism or with political undertones giving their articles subject meanings that could only cause harm.

Surely unity among Christian bodies is a long, long way off. But as one in that stuffy, crowded press room as the Cardinal walked out could deny that there was reason to believe that the concept of unity is making progress.

Long before the council began the Cardinal said there were three ways of promoting unity: first, by constant prayers for fellow Christians everywhere, secondly, by adhering to suffering and hardships for the intention of unity, thirdly, by developing an attitude of sincere Christian charity towards the separated brethren.

His words a few days ago indicate that all these means are being used by Catholics and non-Catholics throughout the whole world. And this gives us reason for valid hope that in God's good time, the dream of unity will be realized.

Nunciature In Cuba Will Remain Open

VATICAN CITY (AP) — The Holy See will not close down its nunciature in Cuba, a Vatican official has said.

Msgr. Ignazio Cardinale, chief of protocol in the Vatican Secretariat of State, said at a press conference on the subject of relations between Church and State that diplomatic relations between the Holy See and Cuba existed before the present state of affairs.

He noted that the pacts still exist there. Without referring to the muscle of status, he said that the Holy See sees no reason why we should suspend the nunciatures as long as there are Catholics whose rights should be defended.

Monsignor Cardinale said that "as long as the Church can make her voice heard, there is no reason why we should be the first to break diplomatic relations."

He pointed out that the Holy See never takes the initiative in setting up or breaking diplomatic relations.

Asked if the Holy See would open diplomatic relations with Moscow, he said, "The Holy See is ready to enter into diplomatic relations with any state which is ready to respect human rights and which will give her reasonable freedom to exercise her apostolic ministry."

He added, however, that there is very difficult to see how a really godless state could give full guarantee of free exercise and full respect of human rights.

Monsignor Cardinale disclosed that a proposal regarding relations between Church and State may be made to the council Fathers at the next session. He said he could not report on it now since it is still being prepared.

Catholic-Operated Miami USO
Expanding With Troop Buildup

As a result of the buildup of U. S. troops in South Florida occasioned by the Cuban crisis, the Miami USO Club, operated by the National Catholic Community Service, is expanding its program of activities.

Located at 337 NE Second Ave., in the heart of downtown Miami, the club, which has operated in recent years on a part-time basis, is bustling with activity and requests for entertainment groups and hostesses at encampments from Cape Canaveral to Key West.

According to Thomas Butler, executive director of the club which also supervises the operation of two additional clubs in Homestead and an information booth and PX in Fort Lauderdale, the Miami USO committee is making plans which includes requesting hotels or military rates on weekend accommodations, soliciting leftover refreshments from restaurants and bakeries, and requesting accommodations for parties and dances from various organizations in Dade County.

To assist in the program, national headquarters of the National Catholic Community Service in Washington, sent a staff representative to Miami last week.

Miss Isabel Powell will assist Mr. Butler in recruiting volunteer hostesses, planning programs and organizing community groups. Although the Miami USO has about 150 volunteer junior hostesses, at least 500 more single young women between the ages of 18 and 29 will be needed, Miss Powell said.

Senior volunteers, 36 years of age or over, will also be welcomed, she said, to serve as chaperones and supervisors for the various programs and activities at both the Miami and Homestead Clubs.

There is an urgent need, Miss Powell emphasized, for groups to present shows and entertainment at Opa-locka and in Homestead. Prospective volunteers are urged to contact Miss Powell or Mrs. Isabelle Newsome between hours of 9 a.m. and 11 p.m. at the Miami USO Club, 315 N. Krome Ave.

HOT COFFEE is served to three servicemen at Miami's USO-NCCS Club by Rita Witt of SS. Peter and Paul parish. PFC John Kernan and his feline mascot, Newport News, Va., left, join PFC Manuel Monarque, Los Angeles, Cal., and Sp. 4/c Edward Ramon, De Kalb, Tex.

TWO STRAWS and one coke provide laughs for PFC. Dan Ayse Oestreich, Minneapolis, and Patricia Pierce, SS. Peter and Paul.

CARDS AND PARTNERS are just two of the facilities provided for servicemen at the Miami USO Club where an accelerated program of activity is now in progress to serve the increased numbers of the Armed Forces in the South Florida area.

GAME OF POOL entertains PFC. Kenneth Scho, St. Louis, Mo., and Beverly Larsen, Immaculate Conception parish.

OVERSEAS CAP of Philadelphian, PFC. Tony Green, is a good fit on the head of Margaret Davis, St. Michael parish.

A one-day institute for the Catholic Christian Doctrine of the Miami diocese will be held Friday, Nov. 23, in the school auditorium of St. Rose of Lima parish, 107th St. and NE 8th Ave.

Principal speakers will be Mrs. W. S. Miller, of Indianapolis, member of the National CCD Executive Board; and Brother H. Albert, FSC, director of CCD teacher training in the archdiocese of Chicago.

Mrs. Miller has been a speaker at two regional congresses of the CCD and has served as parish chairman of a committee cooperating with the CCD for 16 years.

Brother Albert has taught for 26 years in Christian Brothers Schools in the Midwest.

Mrs. Carroll J. O'Connor of St. Rose of Lima parish is general chairman of the Institute.

The institute program will open with a Mass at 11 a.m. offered by Msgr. R. E. Philbin, diocesan secretary of CCD.

A general meeting will be held at 1 p.m. with Mrs. Miller as speaker.

This will be followed at 1:45 p.m. by group discussions. Principals, chairmen of teachers, and fishers will be in one group; primary teachers and helpers in another and elementary teachers and helpers in a third.

A general meeting for group reports will be at 3:30 p.m.

The evening session will get under way at 7:30 p.m. with Brother Albert as speaker. Also on the evening session agenda is a round table discussion of executive boards.

A display of Confraternity materials and successful projects undertaken in diocesan schools will be set up at the auditorium during the institute.

8 High Schools To Compete In Speech Contest

At least eight high schools of the Miami diocese are expected to take part in an original oratory and extemporaneous speaking contest at 9:30 a.m. Saturday, Nov. 17, at Christopher Columbus High School.

The contest is sponsored by the Catholic Forensic League of Miami. All Catholic High Schools in the diocese have been invited.

Six team trophies will be awarded and three individual trophies.

The original oratory delivered by the contestants will consist of six-to-eight minute memorized speeches on any topic of their choice.

The extemporaneous speaking will be of five to seven minutes duration and the topics will be on current events.

High schools expected to participate are Curley, Cardinal Gibbons, Chaminade, Columbus, LaSalle, Monsignor Pace, Notre Dame and St. Thomas.

BISCAYNE COLLEGE students will begin classes Monday, Nov. 26 in the new building now nearing completion at 16000 NW 32nd Ave. The fine arts college, first Catholic college for men in South Florida is staffed by Augustinian Fathers of Villanova, Pa.

HISTORIAN CITES Progress Of Catholic Press

Baltimore, Md. (NC) — Msgr. John Tracy Ellis told Catholic journalists here their publications show higher quality and greater importance, but that they have not overcome three weaknesses.

The present Church historian, to indicate the importance he attaches to the press, suggested that the Catholic Press Association sponsor the writing of a scholarly history of contemporary Catholic publications to the contributions will not be lost to posterity.

The president of Church history at the Catholic University of America, spoke to a dinner of the members of the eastern region of the Catholic Press Association.

The forthright teacher, whose infrequent addresses usually offer a sharp analysis of some aspect of Catholic life and often provoke major discussions, said he saw three points of weakness in the press.

PERCEPTION NEEDED

"First," he said, "a failure on the part of some members of the Catholic press to conceive their task with the breadth of view and the depth of penetration and insight that may rightly be expected of journalists who have — or should have — as their audience a generation of readers that is neither of immigrant birth nor of an educational background limited to the elementary and secondary school levels.

"Secondly, a super-sensitiveness to criticism from without, that often gives evidence of being matched by a reluctance to indulge in criticism within, as well as a strong tendency to conceal weaknesses."

Mr. Ellis stressed that bishops are not free to permit in their diocesan publications bearing a Catholic name to speak and to act as though they had no responsibility to the local ecclesiastical authority. Bishops have an obligation to exercise vigilance, he said.

On the last point, Msgr. Ellis stressed that bishops are not free to permit in their diocesan publications to bear a Catholic name to speak and to act as though they had no responsibility to the local ecclesiastical authority. Bishops have an obligation to exercise vigilance, he said.

Encyclical Lauded As Means Of Erasing Communism

Baltimore (NC) – Pope John XXIII’s social encyclical Mater et Magistra was praised here as an antidote to “the virus of frustration” and a powerful anti-Communist document.

Father Benjamin L. Masse, S.J., associate editor of America Magazine, said the encyclical offers “a confident, realistic and dynamic platform on which God-fearing men can resolutely and hopefully stand.”

“Far from being overwhelmed by the torrents of change, as well as by the errors and disorders of the times, Pope John sees an immensely hopeful possibility for apostolic endeavor,” Father Masse said in a lecture at the College of Notre Dame of Maryland.

As far as the U.S. is concerned, he said, Mater et Magistra “could not have come at a more opportune time.”

He said many Americans have suffered since the Korean War from “the virus of frustration . . . The turbulent world of today and all its pressing problems have become too much for them and they seek, if not escape, at least an emotional release in some simplistic answer to all our difficulties.”

The Jesuit editor said the encyclical offers no easy answers for “the confused, the impatient, the angry,” but it does provide a solid program of Christian social doctrine.

Looking over their badly depleted food supplies at Camillus House are Brother John of God and Brother David Keane, B.G.S. The Brothers of the Good Shepherd feed some 500 needy daily and expect to serve Thanksgiving dinner to 1,300.

Thanksgiving Dinner Menu Readied At Camillus House

Preparations are moving ahead rapidly for the Thanksgiving Day dinner at Camillus House but there still are a few ingredients missing from the menu.

And for these ingredients the Brothers of Good Shepherd at Camillus House are depending on the generosity of the people of the Miami Diocese.

Some 1,300 needy persons are expected to be served turkey and “all the trimmings” by the Brothers.

One of the major needs of the Brothers is for cooked loaves of poultry dressing. The leaves consist mainly of bread, poultry seasoning, onion and celery baked in a greased pan or in silver foil.

The leaves can be kept in a freezer until just before they are taken to Camillus House which should be Saturday of this week at the earliest. Pick-up of the leaves can be arranged by calling FR 1-1125.

The brothers report that a number of offers have come from persons willing to donate food for the Thanksgiving dinner but more still are needed if no one is to be turned away hungry.

The brothers said there is a need for coffee, canned goods, fruits, potatoes and turkeys.

Four turkeys are already promised but a total of 32 will be needed.

One woman in Homestead has offered eight bushels of squash, 12 poultry dressing leaves, 12 pies (pumpkin and mince) and a quantity of string beans.

The Rosary Society of St. Timothy will prepare loaves of poultry dressing from bread to be supplied by the Brothers.

A group in St. James parish will bake pies for the holiday dinners.

Last year on Thanksgiving, the shelter at 726 NE First Ave., served 1,140 dinners. But this year, an increase to 1,300 is expected.

STUDENT UNION, 2 DORMITIES

Located in north Dade County, the student union provides dining facilities as well as student lounge and areas for study. Union students are accommodated in the new dormitories which provide private and semi-private bedrooms.

Holy Name Plans Action Nov. 18

The Holy Name Society's college south of Washington, D.C., was established in 1922 years ago in Miami Shores by Msgr. William Barry, P.A., his brother, the late Bishop Patrick Barry, fifth Bishop of St. Augustine; and their sister, the late Mother Mary Gerald, O.P., first president of Barry College who served for 28 years as Mother General of the Adrian Dominican Sisters.

Mother Mary Genevieve, O.P., former religious superior at the college, new Mother General of the Adrian community, is expected to attend the ceremonies with the first anniversary of Mother Mary Gerald's death. Other out-of-town guests expected to be present are Msgr. Carroll F. Deady, pastor, Our Lady of Good Counsel parish, Detroit and former archdiocesan superintendent of schools in Detroit, who will deliver the Founders Day address for Msgr. Carroll F. Deady, past president of Barry College chaplain, now pastor at St. Stephen Priory, Davenport, Mass.; Sister Kathleen Marie, O.P., principal, Our Lady of Lourdes School, Melrose and Sister Marie Joseph, O.P., principal, Our Lady Queen of Martyrs College.

Designed by Chicago architects, Barry and Kay, the new Barry buildings have been erected at a cost exceeding $2 million. More than 140 women are accommodated in the new dormitories which provide private and semi-private bedrooms as well as student lounge and other social areas. The college union provides dining facilities for students, lay faculty members and the Sisters as well as recreation center, campus store, post office, customs, publications offices and radio and TV studios. During the dedication ceremonies, a memorial tablet honoring Mr. Thompson will be installed in the college union while a memorial plaque commemorating Mother Gerald's long term as founding-president of the college will be erected in Our Jesus chapel.

BISHOPS Library Medal of the Mid-South Conference of the Catholic Library Association has been awarded to Sister M. Helen of St. Vincent Infirmary, Little Rock, Ark.

In naming the commission's president, Fernando Cardinal Cento, said the archbishop would be expected to pay special attention to communication media matters.
How Soviet Trickery Led To Conquest Of China

As a part of their regular course of instruction on the evils of Communism, Miami Diocesan school pupils study "Questions and Answers on Communism" by Richard Cardinal Cushing. The Voice therefore publishes another installment of excerpts from this authoritative source through the courtesy of the Daughters of St. Paul, at whose bookstore, 2700 Biscayne Blvd., the complete volume is available.

Q. Did certain American forces, interests, and individuals cooperate in betraying the Chinese people into Communist hands and in thus achieving these Moscow goals?

A. That is precisely what happened. Committed Communists, fellow travelers, and appeasers in the United States persuaded our government to pursue a policy which cooperated in the Soviet conquest of China. As one instance of many, there appeared in the July 4, 1943 issue of Far Eastern Survey, official publication of the notorious Institute of Pacific Relations, an article by an "expert," T. A. Bisson. It was said there that there were two Chinas, a "democratic China," that portion under Communist control, and a "feudalistic China," meaning the Republic of China under Chiang K'ai-shek. It was "expert advice" of this character which the Senate Sub-Committee on Internal Security, under the late Senator Pat McCarran, found to have decided United States policy in aiding Soviet Russia in China.

Q. What was the method taken by these so-called "Far Eastern experts" in newspaper, magazine, book, and film activities in the Government to deceive the American people about the real situation in China?

A. In 1922, the Trade Union Unity League, an alleged center for separate Red unions, brought forth the "Trojan Horse" tactic of wide infiltration of the regular labor movement. They created a "United Front Congress," which was at that time to infiltrate the regular labor movement. This was in line with the decisions of the Sixth World Congress of the Communist International, held in Moscow in 1928. In 1929, this TUEL became the Trade Union Unity League, an alleged center for separate Red trade unions. This was in line with the decisions of the Sixth World Congress of the Communist International, held in Moscow in 1928, and the decisions of the Seventh World Congress of the Communist International, held in Moscow in 1935. These acts were in accordance with the Seventh World Congress of the Communist International, held in Moscow in 1935. This was the so-called "United Front Congress," which brought forth the "Trojan Horse" tactic of wide infiltration of government, press, business, and labor.

When Moscow opened the Cold War against the United States, the Communists took such a stand against this country and for Soviet Russia in the CIO that they were expelled.

In 1939 the Supreme Court decided that the Communist Party from its previous difficulties, as all Communist publications proclaimed, and the followers of Moscow planned re-infiltration of the regular labor movement. They did this in widespread discussions in Political Affairs, theoretical organ of the Communist Party.

Q. Can you give some of the highlights of this history?

A. In 1922, the Trade Union Educational League headed by William Z. Foster, who had just become a Communist, became a section of the "Red International of Labor Unions," operated from Moscow. The purpose of the UFL, as Foster admits, was at that time to infiltrate the regular labor movement. Lenin had just recommended in his Left Wing Communism — An Infants Disorder. Then, in 1929, this UFL became the Trade Union Unity League, an alleged center for separate Red trade unions. This was in line with the decisions of the Sixth World Congress of the Communist International, held in Moscow in 1928.

In 1935, the TUEL was dissolved, and all the Red unions went first into the American Federation of Labor unions and then one year later all tumbled out of the AF of L into the CIO. These acts were in accordance with the Seventh World Congress of the Communist International, held in Moscow in 1935. This was the so-called "United Front Congress," which brought forth the "Trojan Horse" tactic of wide infiltration of government, press, business, and labor.

When Moscow opened the Cold War against the United States, the Communists took such a stand against this country and for Soviet Russia in the CIO that they were expelled.
Roles Of Latin
In Education,
Liturgy and Its Place Separate

By BURKE WALSH

ROME (CNS) — Controversies over the place of Latin in the liturgy and its place in education are two "distinct debates," a U.S. bishop said here.

Speaking on contemporary education to parents of children from 30 nations, Bishop John J. Wright of Pittsburgh said:

"The case for Latin in studies and the formation of literarily educated persons is quite different from that of the case for Latin in the liturgy, the public community prayer of the Roman Rite."

The Bishop spoke at Notre Dame school, international institution operated here by the Brothers of Holy Cross. He stated:

"Whatever the outcome of the present widespread discussion of the future respective places of Latin and vernacular languages in the liturgy, the cultural vitality of our civilization will continue to require full, perhaps even greater emphasis on the liberal arts and therefore on classical languages, specifically Latin, in our educational systems."

"Debates about studies and debate about liturgical prayer are on this point distinct debates, though on other points they may be related."

"Significantly, the much-discussed constitution on Latin, published (Feb. 22, 1963) by the Holy See under the title of Veteran Sapientiae, was put out through the Sacred Congregation for Seminaries and Universities. Obviously it is concerned with studies, with the intellectual formation of future priests."

"Many of us fervently pray that this apostolic constitution will prove an effective stimulus in the intellectual life of the Church. We also hope that it will prove of historic help to a general revival of classical studies in our generation."

DEAF MAN PERFECTS
SMALLEST HEARING AID

Miami, Fla. — (Special) — A remarkable miniature hearing aid has been perfected by an engineer who has been hard of hearing for nearly ten years.

This small aid has no dangling cords or separate transmitters and represents a most unusual, and in a product for the hard of hearing. It is especially made for those people who can hear but do not understand. This new hearing instrument provides "ear-to-ear" hearing with the wearer picking up speech, sounds, television, and radio at his ear rather than at a transmitter located in the wearer's clothing.

Due to the use of 4 transistors, the user cost is extremely low and the instrument weighs approximately 1-ounce. It is about the size of a sewing thimble.

Helping the World's Needy
Through the Catholic Bishops' Thanksgiving Clothing Collection

A cavalry officer of the Imperial Roman guard divided his protective cape with a roadside beggar on a cold winter night in France 1600 years ago.

Converting to Christianity he told his emperor he would refuse to bear arms against the enemy about to attack the Roman forces on the Rhine. He preferred charity to killing.

The emperor accepted the miracle granted the officer an honorable discharge and went on into history as St. Martin of Tours.

St. Martin's noble act of charity will be recalled during the Catholic Bishops' Thanksgiving Clothing Collection for the world's needy.

You may participate by leaving wearable used clothes, shoes, blankets and other relief supplies at the nearest Catholic church.

YOU CAN HELP PUT a happy smile on the face of this Kashmir boy and his young friends with contributions of wearable used clothing, shoes, blankets and other relief supplies to your local Catholic Church during Thanksgiving week.

THIS KOREAN GIRL, her little brother strapped to her back, is happier than finding a pearl in an oyster, as she opens a box and finds a pair of canvas shoes for herself.

The tattered clothes of this Latin American lad have been replaced by apparel donated to the annual Catholic Bishops' Thanksgiving Clothing Collection by American Catholics.

BEAU BRUMMELS? Not exactly, but the two Korean orphan boys are warmly outfitted to meet the rigors of the weather in their country as the result of contributions of used clothing to the annual Bishops Thanksgiving Clothing Collection.

DIEE NEED rather than the latest style prevails in the squalid Philippine Islands jungle village where a representative of Catholic Relief Services, the overseas aid agency of the American Bishops, distributes clothing to poor children.

It's The Season For Turkey Cooking

This year's Thanksgiving dinner will, of course, feature turkey, the real king of the holiday feast and the modern, ready to cook turkey is in itself a bird for which to be thankful.

It's easy to take for granted the goodness and nourishment that come from roast turkey with rich stuffing; from green fresh vegetables and succulent fruits; from hot rolls with pools of melted butter; from gravy holding elegant fillings of tasty caramel and rich cream. Instead, such food should be consciously appreciated as we're eating, especially upon Thanksgiving Day. These are blessings that come with living in America — the Land of Plenty — and of good cooks!

And what other good things might be on this holiday table? Fully mashed potatoes with lots of perfect giblet gravy and, of course, old-fashioned cranberry sauce. Creamed onions with slivered almonds or paprika or both; and brussel sprouts, sprinkled with buttered crumble.

For a dessert choose generous caramel angel pie topped with whipped cream and shaved bitter chocolate, traditional mincemeat pie, or fruit and cheese.

BUTTER-BAKED TURKEY

1. Have turkey completely clean Rinse with cold water, pat dry.
2. Preheat oven to 250 degrees F.
3. Rub cavity of bird lightly with salt. Do not salt if stuffed.
4. Fill wishbone area (neck) with stuffing, if used.
5. Fasten neck skin to back with skewer.
6. Stuff cavity lightly, if stuffing is used.
7. Push drumsticks under band of skin at tail; or tie them to tail.
8. Place turkey breast side up on rack in shallow open pan.
9. Cover top and sides of bird with piece of cheese cloth. Some cooks like to wrap a strip of clean cloth around end of each leg bone and tie it with string — to prevent drying.
10. Roast bird according to timetable below. If cheese cloth dries, re moisten it with more melted butter or with drippings in pan.

FROSTED GRAPES

To make frosted grapes for garnish, brush grapes with egg white that's been beaten until frothy, then sprinkle with granulated sugar and set upon a wire rack to dry.

BUTTER DRESSING

For dressing, use day-old white bread ... or use bread rolls or hamburger or hot dog buns, crumbled.

- 3/4 cup melted butter
- 1/4 cup minced onions
- 1/4 teaspoon poultry seasoning
- 1/4 cups sliced mushrooms
- 1/4 cup cooked pats

CARAMEL ANGEL PIE

Mix cornstarch and sugar in saucepan. Add boiling water, stirring constantly, and cook (stirring) until mixture is thick and clear — about 10 to 12 minutes. Add salt to egg whites and beat until stiff. Add 3 tablespoons sugar and vanilla. Continue beating until egg whites are creamy. Pour hot cornstarch mixture over egg whites, beating constantly. Cool slightly and pour into pastry shell, returning filling high in shell. Just before serving, pour a thin layer of caramel sauce over top of pie, then cover with slightly sweetened whipped cream and syrup. (Make filling at least 2 hours before serving.)

SAUSAGE STUFFING

Here's the answer to repeated requests for old-fashioned sausage stuffing with lots of crunchy celery.

- 2 medium sausages, chopped
- 1 cup chopped nuts, optional
- 2 cups celery, chopped
- 1/4 cup minced onion
- 1/4 cup chopped carrots
- 1/4 teaspoon poultry seasoning
- 1/4 teaspoon celery salt
- 1/4 teaspoon ground nutmeg
- 1/4 cup melted butter
- 1/4 teaspoon pepper
Mom's Nagging Has Driven Dad To Drink

What can married people do when they see that their invalid mother is simply driving their elderly parent to despair? Lately he's started drinking — deeply enough to remain in a kind of stupor so that her constant nagging won't bother him. Mother's always dominated the family, and since father's retirement she insists he spend every moment waiting on her. They could hire a part-time nurse, but her constant criticism drives everyone crazy. If we're not there to be nagged, she takes it out on Dad, and he must agree with her or she lets him have it. We're afraid he'll become an alcoholic. How should we handle this situation?

By FATHER JOHN L. THOMAS, S. J.

There are several points in your interesting letter. Denise, that I wish to comment upon before attempting to answer your question. In the first place, it is well for all of us to realize that no other human experience more clearly reveals our true character and the quality of our Christian outlook on life than our reaction to sickness, particularly prolonged sickness or the state of being an invalid.

It is not primarily a matter of enduring pain, for pain is relative, in terms of our sensitivity, stamina, expectations and anticipation at the time — as every mother knows. But sickness and its associated inconveniences must be personally interpreted or given meaning, and it is here that the experience becomes a revealer of character.

Mature Christians regard sickness as a humbling reminder of their human condition, and as members of the Mystical Body, they gradually learn to accept it as an opportunity to participate in the redemptive sufferings of Christ. People who have no faith, or those who have not learned to interpret their experience in the light of faith, regard all sufferings as meaning less evil and consequently become frustrated, resentful, or even bitter when forced to endure sickness. Hence by way of compensation, they may learn to use their illness as a means of gaining unwarranted attention and sympathy, or as a convenient excuse for all their faults and lack of effort, or as a way of maintaining control and domination over the people around them.

These compensations (which are really escapes from reality) may become so rewarding that some people prefer their sufferings to sickness, imagine they are sick, or pretend to be sick rather than give them up. We see this tendency frequently in children, but since most of us remain more or less immature and sooner or later must endure some sickness and suffering, we should all be on our guard against it.

Otherwise, when sickness arrives, we shall probably act childish or display the traits of the little man who refused to take out life insurance to protect his wife and children. "When I die, I want it to be a sad day for everybody."

Second, you mentioned that your mother had always dominated the family. In this connection I would like to comment that it is a rather common misconception to believe that the more charitable and better for all concerned to allow domineering persons to have their own way.

This peace-at-any-price philosophy in marriage is false on several counts. Both partners suffer, for the silent one becomes a negative personality, while the unchecked vice of dominating personality seriously hinders all growth in virtue. The children also suffer, since their parents offer them only a distorted model of Christian marriage.

Third, as in many human relations' difficulties, your problem seems to involve conflicting rights and obligations, for you must love and reverence your parents yet continue them for their conduct. The conflict is only apparent, however, for you are bound to love and reverence them that you must do something about the present situation. True love sees the real good of the person loved.

Perhaps the major obstacle you face, Denise, is that the situation is no longer involving you and your sisters are the product of it. In other words, you are not going to find it easy either to tell her the truth or to get her to listen to you if you do.

When dealing with such situations, your first step must be to clarify your own thinking. Unless you are thoroughly convinced that what you are doing is demanded by justice and charity from true Christian charity, you will not accomplish your purpose. For though you may start out in the right direction, you — become too disturbed by feelings of guilt and anxiety to persevered once you encounter her first, predictably sharp reaction.

Remember, Denise, it would be false charity indeed if out of fear of hurting her feelings, you permitted her to go on acting as she does. We may presume that she has the same obligations as others to practice self-discipline, to control her tongue, and to show sincere concern and respect for others. Will you thank her for your weaknesses when you must render her account?

In spite of her reactions, and she will probably plead sickness, neglect, lack of love and respect, and so on, you must proceed calmly, clearly and without restraining. Spell out her obligations objectively, in terms of Christ's own words, as seen Christian to another.

She may feel hurt, but perhaps not as much as you think. Keep your approach impersonal, basing it not on your opinion but on her obligations to Christ. You feel she'll never forgive you? Isn't that making a rather low estimate of her virtue?

Traditional Tilt Wednesday At Curtis Park Is A Tossup

Archbishop Curley High and Christopher Columbus will meet Wednesday night at Curtis Park in their traditional Thanksgiving Day eve football game with the unofficial diocesan championship riding on the outcome.

The game shapes up as an even contest, although the slippery Curley Knights have been able to win only one of their last four games before meeting Miami Jackson tonight in the Orange Bowl.

The Knights are 4-4 at present.

Columbus has a 3-4-1 record as they go against South Broward High tonight at Homestead.

Both teams had figured on better records for this time of the season.

Curley's hopes were based on the quarterbacking of Carroll Williams along with 15 other returning lettermen from last year's 4-5 squad.

However, the Curley offense has sputtered and the Knights have picked up only one touchdown in their last three games.

James Paul and Tim Fitzpatrick have been standouts in the backfield but the line has been a big disappointment.

For Columbus, the Explorers started off well, beating Miami Jackson, 54-7, but lost a one-touchdown decision to Key West, the current Gold Coast Conference Southern Division leaders before a rash of injuries set in.

However, Columbus has come up with one of the area's top backs in 200-pound David Hubs, whomever exploits at halfback have been drawing the attention of over 60 colleges.

The development of Junior Ralph Spirlock at quarterback has also been a bright spot for the Explorers. Spirlock has thrown five touchdown passes in the five games he has played regularly.

LaSalle Closes Out Season With Win Over Chaminade

LaSalle High closed out its first season of football last week with a 1-2-4 victory over Chaminade of Hollywood at the McArthur High Stadium.

The Rams got their score on a 12-yard pass interception by George Walphy in the second quarter and on a three-yard blast by Nelson Hernandez in the fourth period.

Hernandez' touchdowns climax ed an 80-yard march that featured runs of 15 and 21 by Edmundo Bignoni. The extra point was made by Bill Ryan.

The Rams finished out their year with a 5-5 record having beaten Cardinal Gibbons High, 12-6, for their other triumph.

Chaminade, which also completed its first season of football, had a 1-4 record against junior varsity teams and a 1-1 against varsity teams, having nipped Gibbons, 14-13.

Gibbons also completed its first year last week-end losing 28-7 to the Northeast High JV squad. The Saints were winless in six games, five of which were against varsity teams.

Habla el Obispo Carroll Ante el Dia de Dar Gracias

Desde Roma, donde participa del Concilio Ecuménico, el Obispo de Miami, Coleman F. Carroll, envió un mensaje a los sacerdotes, religiosos y laicos de la Diócesis, del que ofrecemos a continuación una traducción:

Me siento feliz de unirme a ustedes para expresar a Dios todopoderosa nuestra gratitud en este Día de Dar Gracias por tantas extraordinarias bendiciones otorgadas a nuestra Iglesia y a nuestra patria.

Según alcanzamos una más clara idea de la esencia que es el comunismo debemos sentirnos tanto más agradecidos a Dios por las ventajas extraordinarias de ser americanos y vivir en este país, con un recuerdo de agradecimiento por la libertad tanto respecto a la religión como a la política.

Durante estas últimas semanas, tan tensas, hemos hallado nuevos motivos para agradecer a nuestro presidente y otros líderes de nuestro país por su firme postura contra toda posible agresión comunista. Sin embargo, al mismo tiempo, esperamos ardentemente que tan valiente y recta actitud siga siendo nuestra política y que nunca nos falte cuando nuestra nación se vea amenazada.

Este Día de dar gracias será observado en el año del Concilio Ecuménico. La promesa de bendiciones múltiples que tan solemne reunión representa para toda la humanidad no duda que lleve nuevas esperanzas y más hondo agradecimiento para hacer frente a los meses y años que se avecinan. Estoy seguro de que nuestro pensamiento será unánime en este Día de Dar Gracias al agradecer a Dios plegarías fervientes como gracias que Le dirigimos por Sus incontables bendiciones mercedes y favores en el pasado y para implorar Sus bendiciones con una piedad por paz y el valor de nuestras convicciones en lo futuro.

Les imporio mis bendiciones parentales, y soy Devestamente de Ustedes en Cristo,

God Love You
Most Reverend
Fulton J. Sheen

Our Lord once bade us: “Make to yourselves friends of the mammon of iniquity.” Mammon means money or riches. As Our Lord was speaking to those who had made their money unjustly, he calls it, in this case, “The mammon of iniquity.”

On the other hand, our Blessed Lord did not condone money, but rather said: “My counsel to you is, make use of your own wealth to win yourselves friends who, when you leave it behind, will welcome you into eternal habitations.” Who are the friends to whom our Lord is alluding? The poor, the weak, the suffering? How will they be able to receive us into heaven? By acting as our defense attorneys, our protectors, our intercessors, who will plead for our souls at death before the throne of God?

We remember approaching a wealthy but hardened sinner on his deathbed. Nothing could move him until we told him that he was bankrupt and had no merit to turn to God! The tragedy is that he waited so long to turn to God, for the rich—i.e., in certain sense, have a great advantage over the poor, who must be patient with their crosses. The rich can use their money to make some very wise investments for the Kingdom of God.

We would advise you now, and also in your will, to make friends in Africa, Asia, Oceania and Latin America. Then, at the moment of your death, black hands, yellow hands, red hands and white hands will be lifted up for you to plead your salvation. Write to us for our pamphlets on wills and annuities—they will tell you how to leave money to the Vicar of Christ at the moment of your death. In the meantime, place a coin a day in a cup, and at Christmas time, send it to the Holy Father through his Society for the Propagation of the Faith. Thank you!

GOD LOVE YOU to V.M.Y. for $40: “In thanksgiving to God for good health and a good job, I am sending part of my monthly pay check to be used for poor people through your pamphlets on wills and annuities.”

SHARING OUR TREASURE

By FATHER JOHN A. O’BRIEN
(University of Notre Dame)

The Seventh-day Adventists, formally organized in 1863, is one of the most active missionary denominations within Protestantism.

In the four-year period from 1958 to 1962 they gained 250,000 new members. By 1961, their membership of 1,378,800—a Father O’Brien gain of 300,000—was an all-time new high. In 1961, their membership of 1,378,800—a Father O’Brien gain of 300,000—was an all-time new high. In 1963, their membership of 1,378,800—a Father O’Brien gain of 300,000—was an all-time new high.

If U.S.A. Catholics displayed equal missionary zeal, how many millions would we gain each year?

Every Catholic can win a churchless friend for Christ. This he can do by living an upright and holy life, by kindness and charity to all, by explaining his faith. It is this illustrated in the conversion of Dorothy L. Brooks, a novitiate of the Sisters of Charity of St. Vincent de Paul, who, owing to her friends to Sunday Mass, briefing him on it beforehand.

This is illustrated in the conversion of Dorothy L. Brooks, a novitiate of the Sisters of Charity of St. Vincent de Paul, who, owing to her friends to Sunday Mass, briefing him on it beforehand.

"When I became engaged to a Catholic,” Dorothy related, “I attended Mass with him every Sunday at the Sacred Heart Church, and was deeply impressed with the sermons of Father Boniface Weckman, a Capuchin. After the engagement was broken, I attended with Virgin Glauc, who gave me a small prayer card containing the prayers of the Mass in English. Virgin also answered some of my questions and gave me a better understanding of the meaning of the Holy Sacrifice."

"A friend of mine, a minister, upon learning of my attendance at Mass, became upset. I explain- dor had been retained until the beginning of the Mass until the end. In order to fulfill your obligation, you must arrive before the beginning of the Mass, but when must you actually arrive in order to fulfill your Sunday obligation?

A. Your Sunday obligation requires that you be there before the beginning of the Mass until the end. In order to fulfill your obligation, you must arrive before the beginning of the Mass until the end. You must arrive at least five minutes before the beginning of the Mass. What you really mean by your Sunday obligation?

Q. Some friends and I went to an out of town Mass on Sunday and arrived while the priest was giving the sermon. Afterwards we got into a discussion about when you must actually arrive for your Sunday obligation. I thought you must be there for the reading of the first Gospel. They said it was the three principal parts of the Mass. I realize that you should be there for the beginning of the Mass, but when must you actually arrive in order to fulfill your Sunday obligation?

MOVIES

BY WILLIAM H. MOORING

If you're a teen-age or young married moviograp, you're in step with the big bankers.

"They can count," says film director Tay Garnett, "so they're beginning to take more seriously the mathematics behind the box office and their business. Most of his work is of the 'adult' interest, but he never pushes realism beyond good taste."

NEW WAVE: OLD TRICKS

"Naturally on entertainment, tastes have changed and will keep on changing," he says, "but movie makers had better step tripping over their own terminology."

They aim to make films that are "boring," but forget to call them "inventing." They seek to sell the human character in 'depth,' but dig only deep enough to find 'dirt.'

"Vice becomes their trademark for vision," he said, "and the vogue is to film as 'new wave,' which writer-directors who merely repeat or rework old ideas."

record he can name them. Run through the recent film flock and he bets you can too!"

He sees nothing wrong with realism, but insists that Arty as a creative force is not confused with artifice; "a sort of ingenuity that is mostly tricks." Perversion, rape, and such "shock" subjects, make tricks easier.

"Social drama," says Garnett, "is perhaps the one thing. When all it does is unsettle sick and evil things, or reflect a philosophy of doom, it falsely labels pessimism as perception."

In the new wave, says Garnett, "they have finally arrived at the old trick of pretending everything is new."

Movie-makers with a zeal for genuine screen art, he thinks, had better cut down on mock and put into their films, a little more heart. He is waiting to hear what YOU say.

ETHIOPIA: THE HALF-TOLD TALE

YOU DON’T KNOW THE HALF OF IT! That familiar saying originated in the Holy Bible... When the Queen of Sheba heard of King Solomon’s wisdom, she made a great journey to visit him... After he had answered her hardest questions and shown her the magnificence of his court, she exclaimed in wonder: “The report of thy wisdom is true, I did not believe that thou hadst told me. But I have not heard the half of it!... The Queen of Sheba came from ETHIOPIA. Today her legendary descendants live so often in huts of straw... ETHIOPIA is trying very hard to make a better life for the people but education is very poor and the problems immense. Roads are so bad it takes weeks to go several hundred miles... Farmers consequently have difficulty in finding markets for their produce. Income is extremely small... Two little fellows in the back row... I’m worried about the two little fellows in the back row... Be assured of my prayers that you may gather more than you might need, if that be possible... I’m not so worried about their food and happiness. The CATHOLIC NEAR EAST WELFARE ASSOCIATION is most grateful for the continued help given its missionaries... May we ask you to continue to remember them in your prayers... Three children of Arab refugees in the Holy Land? Two little boys, one of learning because you have helped them to ‘see’ through Braille.” Yes, Father A.P., there are many ways of seeing. First of all, there is the seeing through our eyes. For some, their seeing is precious—to us, and to those we help... Two others behind them, in the back row... And so I’m not so worried about their food and happiness... Man Stricken at Mass... Man Stricken at Mass... Man Stricken at Mass...
