New Cuban Shrine Plan Announced

Plans for the erection in Miami of a permanent shrine honoring Our Lady of Charity of El Cobre, patroness of Cuba, were announced this week by Bishop Coleman F. Carroll who said that the proposed edifice "may well become a national shrine" symbolic of the gratitude of the thousands of Cuban refugees welcomed by the United States.

The shrine, which will be completely financed, designed by and developed by Cubans "as an indication of the depth of their faith and as a definite contribution to the community," will be located on land overlooking Biscayne Bay and made available by the Diocese of Miami.

It will be constructed on 10 to 15 acres of ground, adjacent to Vizcaya and in front of Immaculata-LaSalle Academy in Miami's southeast section. The shrine may serve as a meeting place for 15 or 20,000 persons, Bishop Carroll said.

Manolo Reyes, Spanish News Editor of WTVJ-Ch. 4 and associate editor of the Spanish section of The Voice, heads a committee of Cuban laymen who have volunteered to direct the unique undertaking.

Bishop Carroll disclosed that requests for such a shrine had come to his attention several times and stated that the erection of the shrine will provide "an opportunity for Cuban people to express in a very concrete way their gratitude and thanksgiving for the power of the intercession of the Mother of God in aiding them in their flight from communism to the freedom and welcome they found in the United States.

"The shrine will also serve to remind them of their obligations to and developed by Cubans "as an indication of the depth of their faith and as a definite contribution to the community," will be located on land overlooking Biscayne Bay and made available by the Diocese of Miami.

Legality Of Nun Wearing Habit On U.S. Job Again Challenged

A new court challenge to the constitutionality of a nun wearing her religious habit while employed on a federal government project is being planned by the American Civil Liberties Union of Florida.

For Sister Marie Infanta, an Oblate Sister of Providence, employed by Dade County's Economic Opportunity Program, Inc. as director of Brownsville Day Care Center in one of Miami's Negro districts, it is the second time in three months that the legality of her wearing the religious garb of her order has been questioned.

Richard Feder, president of the ACLU of Florida said Monday that the use of federal funds to employ a Catholic nun wearing a religious habit may be challenged in federal court, claiming that "state courts have already ruled employment of nuns in religious garb in public school systems unconstitutional."

SIMILAR ISSUE

Last June a similar issue was raised by Jack Gordon, board member of Dade County's EOPI who objected to using government funds "to propagate a religious faith." In answer to the EOPI's board's request for a ruling on the legality of spending public funds to hire a teacher wearing religious garb, the U.S. Office of Economic Opportunity in Washington, D.C. this week announced that Sister Marie Infanta may continue her position.

Feder, however, disagreed with this view and said that the principle at stake is governmental approval of religious symbolism, not religious belief, noting that this is a "distinction between belief and practice."

He added that in 1951 the ACLU adopted a national police statement expressing the view that "no teacher in a public school should be permitted to wear religious garb."

WILL RECOMMEND

The ACLU's legal panel will present its recommendation on the case to their board of directors next Wednesday Oct. 4. They will decide on possible court action.

Prior to assuming her duties at the Culmer Day Care Center for pre-school youngsters last June, Sister Marie Infanta organized and directed a Head Start School in Washington, D.C. Other members of her order, whose motherhouse is in Baltimore, direct Head Start schools and similar projects in other parts of the country.

Young Star Of ‘A Patch Of Blue’ Will Entertain

Elizabeth Hartman in a scene from her first film with Sidney Poitier

New Star Will Give Reading

Elizabeth Hartman, who achieved stardom in her first motion picture through her portrayal of the young blind girl in Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer’s "A Patch of Blue," will appear in a special performance during the closing banquet of the NCCW convention at 8 p.m., Saturday, Oct. 8 in the Fontainebleau’s grand ballroom.

The 21-year-old star, a niece of Mrs. Marcus Kitch, president of the National Council of Catholic Women and of WICS, Inc., presented a reading compiled from excerpts with well-known works of poetry and prose arranged by Mrs. Patricia McNulty, member of the Washington Archdiocesan Council of Catholic Women. She will perform in Miami under the direction of Sister Marie Claire, O.P., head of the Barry College Speech and Drama Dept.

A native of Youngstown, Ohio, where she lives with her mother, Mrs. Claire Hartman, sister of Mrs. Kitch, Miss Hartman studied drama for a year at Carnegie Tech after completing her high school studies. Although no one in her family had ever been connected with the theater, her parents persuaded her to join a little theater group as a step toward overcoming her shyness.

"At first, I worked as an usher," Miss Hartman recalls. "Then backstage work fascinated me and finally I took up acting." It was while she was appearing in summer stock with the Kenley Players in Warren, Ohio, that she tried out for two Broadway-bound plays and was offered parts in both. Though she chose "Everybody Out," she stayed with the theater, becoming a "dedicated and brilliant-talented actress."

Mrs. Kitch will preside at the formal banquet where Dr. Catherine Clarke of Albuquerque, New Mexico, treasurer of the NCCW, will be the toastmaster.

Auxiliary Bishop Stephen Zepp of San Antonio, Assist- ant episcopal moderator of the national women’s federation, will give the invocation.

BANQUET DETAILS are discussed with Hotel Fontainebleau head chef, William Fleischman, by Mrs. Theodore Schroeder, holding menu, banquet chairman; Mrs. Edward Keefe, convention co-chairman; Mrs. Theodore Schroeder, holding menu, banquet chairman; Mrs. Edward Keefe, convention co-chairman, right; and Mrs. Harry Mitchell, Jr., attendance chairman.

Those planning to attend need not be registered for the convention, according to NCCW officials.

tion to call upon Our Lady of Charity to help relatives and friends still in Cuba subjected to the Castro regime," the Bishop said, declaring that if the Castro regime fails and the Cubans return to their homeland in great numbers, the shrine will be a reminder of the fact that they contributed to the culture of the community.

The shrine committee has already established an office known as "Santuario a la Caridad" in Centro Hispano of Charity of El Cobre located at 130 NE Second St., where contributions may be sent.

Divine Help Of Rosary Has Historical Roots

By JOHN J. WARD

Pray Rosary For Peace In October

Habits Of Religious Are In News Again

The work of much of the Church is conducted through clerics and women religious. The issue of their presence in public schools has been a matter of much debate in recent years.

In response to the appeal of Pope Paul VI, Bishop Coleman F. Carroll has called upon the people of the Diocese of Miami to unite with Catholics throughout the world during the month of October in reciting the Rosary daily for peace. October is the Month of the Holy Rosary.

In 1973, Pope Paul V established Oct. 7 as the Feast of the Most Holy Rosary of the Blessed Virgin. For more than 400 years Catholics have been observing the day and the month as a time of special devotion.

In the Diocese of Miami, the Feast Day has unusual significance. For it was on Oct. 7, 1958, that Bishop Carroll installed as its first Pope Paul issued an encyclical letter, dated Sept. 15, 1963, entitled: "Christi Matris Rosarii" ("Rosaries to the Mother of Christ!").

In his letter, the Pope called for the recitation of the Rosary for the success of "the Church and the Christian family, like that of the month of October which is consecrated to the Holy Rosary, will also form the most efficacious school of Christian life."

The Feast of the Most Holy Rosary was instituted to honor the Blessed Virgin on the occasion of the Battle of Lepanto. The nuns, for instance, in answer to the recitation of the Rosary, it was introduced to commemorate a time when Pope St. Pius V called for the recitation of the Rosary for the success of the Christian forces against the Turks when the Ottoman fleet was defeated in the sea battle of Lepanto on Oct. 7, 1571.

Pope Leo XIII, often called "The Pope of the Rosary," gave the feast its present rank and Office which contains the prayer that probably better gives the reason why Catholics pray the Rosary: "Mary, most serenely fair, hear an unbeliever's prayer."

The family Rosary unites "members with those absent and those dead. It links them more tightly in a sweet bond of love, with the Most Holy Virgin, who, like a loving mother, will come among her children bestowing upon them, an abundance of gifts of concord and family peace."

The Voice found out that a great many people of all faiths were very interested in the case and very sympathetic to the idea of serving in public schools. The Voice also found out that a great many people of all faiths were very interested in the case and very sympathetic to the idea of serving in public schools.

Beatle John Lennon Possibly "Half Right"

By Father John B. Sheerin

Who needs Jesus Christ? There are millions in the world who consider His name a vague and appeals only to dreamers or a reward for passing philosophy and theology.

Lennon apparently spoke at the wrong time. For the empty seats at Shea Stadium in New York a few days later showed that the titles are losing their popularity. Moreover, he soon realized that his remarks were getting into the Beatles' box office take and he attempted a rather inept apology. Perhaps he was temporarily influenced by his reading of "The Passion Plot" when he made his original statement. He admitted that Hugh Schonfield's book, which claims that Christ's Passion was a hoax, had been exerting a strong influence on him.

Lennon was right, however, in the implications of his statement. Jesus is losing his popularity at the present time. By that I mean that the Christian churches are losing their influence because of their irrelevance to modern life. The fact of their irrelevance is being brought out at the Convention in Cleveland this year, the delegates (perhaps influenced by the Negro slums in some cities?) voted overwhelmingly to eliminate the(Canvas) race option. And yet, isn't that stance in conflict with the passage about becoming justice and equality? Isn't the Constitution of the United States a sacred text, therefore, self-contradictory as it stands?

On pages 63-64 of the annotated Constitution and Statutes, under Title III, the absurdity of the Caucasian-only restriction seems to me to stand out like a sore thumb. Observe:

Notation 3 under Section 72 says: "The principle, though a native born American citizen, is ineligible for membership in the governing body of the Greek or White race."

Notation 4 informs us that "whether the losses of dominion of blood, other than that of the non-nasal race, in an American Indian, is indicative for membership in a governing body of the Caucasian or White race."

Notation 5 says: "A full blooded Indian is not eligible for membership in the governing body of the Caucasian or 'white' race, is ineligible."
Here's A Tip For Teens Looking To The Future

By Msgr. R. T. Baskette, Director, Diocesan Catholic Charities

Amidst the stream of legislation confronting our Congress is a bill which should be of serious interest to all parents of our Diocese, particularly those with teenage children.

In 1963, the Department of Health, Education and Welfare established a departmental task force with the charge to study the problem of manpower shortage and to increase awareness of the gap between the need for social work manpower in programs of health, education and welfare and the availability of such manpower.

As a result of the study of the NOW Departmental Task Force, and in line with the recommendations of the Advisory Council on Public Welfare, the Social Work Manpower Training Act has been introduced into both Houses of Congress. Bill H.R. 15311 was introduced in the Senate by Senator Ribicoff.

Both measures are identical in language and call for Federal funds to meet the costs of developing and improving social service curricula, as well as the expense of training of social workers. This measure is presently pending before the respective committees of each House.

WROTE SENATOR

At the suggestion of the Child Welfare League of America and the National Conference of Catholic Charities, we recently wrote to Sen. George A. Smathers of the Senate Finance Committee and to Reps. A. Edward Heberg, Jr., of the House Ways and Means Committee.

In essence, this is what we said:

"That there is a serious shortage of manpower in social welfare is no evident secret to the profession. Suffice it to say that in 1965 it was reliably reported there were in Florida 5,340 social workers.

"We know, too, from a survey experience here in South Florida, how difficult it is to find men and women trained and dedicated to help the downtrodden. Where and how are we to recruit needed additional social workers into, under the present systems, college curriculums are inadequate of inviting and training sufficient students for this most important and worthy career?"

"Start this work, a part of the Great Society? Should it not be mentioned in the same breath with the War on Poverty? Does not the care of dependent drugs and girls, homeless children, and unwed mothers rankly occupy a top drawer in this scheme of helping our unfortunate?

"Also, of course, the vitality of such manpower..."}

Meeting Set To Establish Library Unit

Plans for the formation of a Florida Unit of the Catholic Library Association have been announced here.

Anyone concerned with providing library service in schools, colleges, hospitals, parishes and public institutions is encouraged to be present.

Miss Margaret Mary Henrich, assistant 15th year with Biscayne College, conducted the Associated Sisters of Villanova, Pa., and a member of the executive board of the Catholic Library Association, will preside at the meeting.

BJ Proclaims Columbus Day

WASHINGTON (NC) - In a White House ceremony, President Johnson signed the annual proclamation designating Oct. 12 as Columbus Day, and praised last year's immigration reform law as "demonstrating the desire of people in the United States to end discrimination in every corner of our national life."

Abolishing quotas based on national origin, the immigration law greatly increased the number of persons eligible for immigration from southern European countries to the United States.

"Under the old system, even Christophy Columbus would have found it difficult to come to this country - Simply because he was born in Italy," the President said.

Efforts Of Nuns Praised During Mercy Dedication

Proper motivation is of primary importance in assisting our fellow men, Bishop Coleman F. Carroll said following ceremonies of blessing for Mercy Hospital's new south wing last Sunday.

Pontifical Mass was celebrated by the Bishop in the hospital chapel where a large group of religious and laymen participated.

Pointing out that "nowhere do we find a greater occasion to carry out the Lord's command to love God and love your neighbor than within this hospital," Bishop Carroll emphasized that Mercy Hospital has developed rapidly because of the efforts of those who were willing to sacrifice "for the good of their fellow man.

"We turn our attention in words of thanksgiving first to Almighty God and then to the Sisters, doctors and nurses," Bishop Carroll added. "Those who through their efforts helped this hospital in the days when it was in need of assistance. This has become a reality because of the combined efforts of those concerned with it and the grace of Almighty God."

DEBTED TO SISTERS

"We are primarily indebted to the good Sisters," the Bishop reiterated, reminding the congregation that the Sisters of St. Joseph of St. Augustine, now observing their centenary year in Florida, "have given example to others through their dedication to the sick. Read the history of Florida," he added. "And you will see the wonderful contributions of the Sisters of St. Joseph motivated always by the spirit of love."

Bishop Carroll told hospital guests that "there is a great need to be properly motivated in the work of assisting our fellow men. As our society becomes more complex, our needs become greater in the area of the care of the sick, the government is moving in to help since private institutions cannot do it."

A SAD DAY

"But," he added, "it would be a sad day if the care of the sick were in the hands of the public authorities. Then we would get service in a mechanical way without love. When we are stricken with sickness and it is necessary for us to have nursing care, do we want to be considered just a number in a room or do we want those who are willing to take care of us to show by their actions that they are fulfilling their love of God?" Bishop Carroll added.

The Florida National Bank at Miami is pleased to offer its congratulations to the Bishop of the Diocese of Miami Most Reverend Coleman F. Carroll on the dedication of the new $3 Million Dollar Wing of the MERCY HOSPITAL

Which will provide a pediatric ward and a Neuropsychological Department, plus facilities for Hydro-therapy, Surgery, Cardiac Units, Out-Patient Department Pharmacy and Dining Room.

We extend our best wishes to Sister Mary Emmanuel, S.S.J., Administrator, and her staff, for their continued devotion to the care of the sick. Mercy Hospital, its staff and its new wing of social departments are indeed a blessing to our community.

New Hospital Wing
Cost $3.7 Million

The new south wing of Mercy Hospital built at a cost of $3.7 million is a four-story structure housing a 25-bed peditric department and a 25-bed neuropsychological department.

Also located in the new wing are hydro-therapy, general surgery and cardiac units; an out-patient department, pharmacy, and large dining room.

Completely air-conditioned, the wing was erected through a Federal grant of almost $1,500,000 and matching funds from voluntary contributions.

Officials of the hospital, built in 1950 at 3663 S. Miami

Ave., hope that the new facilities will significantly relax the shortage of space for the mentally ill and pediatric cases in the Greater Miami area.

"Such hospitals as Jackson Memorial and Variety Children's hospital are doing an excellent job, but they are bulgging at the seams," Sister Mary Emmanuel, S.S.J., hospital administrator said. "The new wing does not provide a boom in beds," she added, "in fact, the entire program has added only about 48 beds. We are trying to some degree to increase the capacity of these special departments the community urgently needs."

Volunteers—Here’s A Job Made To Order For You

BY FATHER JOSEPH J. BRUNNER (Managing Editor, C.C.D.)

In this age of Vatican II, it became more and more apparent that the role of the lay apostle is to be emphasized. The documents of Vatican II echo the gospel of Christ. It is here that Christ makes our obligation clear to us. For the good we do, we will be rewarded; and for the good we do not do, we will be called to account, as well as the blunders, mistakes or sins that we have committed.

Many so-called “good Catholics” think that all is required of them to save their soul is to remain in the state of grace. There is more to our religion than this! We can’t remain passive in this the age of Vatican II. We must be active in the practice of our religion. Christ in the parable of the mustard seed spoke of one of the men because he buried his money thereby wasting it. He did not use it properly. You will be judged by the way you use your talents and abilities.

Will Christ condemn you because you wasted your time? Will you be a good steward of your talents?

By the fact that you are baptized into the body of Christ, you are an apostle of Christ and in the practice of our religion. Christ in the parable of the mustard seed speaks of one of the men because he buried his money thereby wasting it. He did not use it properly. You will be judged by the way you use your talents and abilities. Will Christ condemn you because you wasted your time? Will you be a good steward of your talents?

What a sad abuse of our privileges if we do not use them to help others. In the Cenacle, men and women answered the call to be early apostles. In the early days of the Church, it was the laity who spread the faith. In matres, however, the laity, especially, have become passive. We satisfy our conscience by saying “God is omnipotent.” He does not require me; the souls He wants to save, He can save without our help.

Why Me?
The priests of our Diocese are in need of a spiritual renewal. We do not need a spiritual renewal in order to save our world. We do need a spiritual renewal in order to help save our world. We do not need a spiritual renewal in order to save our world. We do need a spiritual renewal in order to help save our world.

If you are sincere, you will try to do something about the spiritual ignorance of your area. Are there many boys and girls of school age who are not attending any type of religious instruction? There are adults, and sorry to say, many of them, who know nothing or very little about their faith. Why? Because of lack of opportunity to learn. Or there may be those who are in need of a spiritual push.

Spiritual Renewal
Each of you has a voice which can put to good use in this spiritual renewal of our many neglected areas. Your answer could lie in the Multi Discusion Clubs. If only we had the zeal and the desire of our parishioners, we would attract many young people.

Christ would not abandon us by not sending us leaders in this vast field of religious education, but many have turned their backs on Christ. Christ has told us “the harvest is ripe but the laborers are few.” Are you to be a laborer for Christ or are you one who caries only about yourself and never carries out the command of Christ “to love your neighbor as yourself”? If you truly love your neighbor you will be helping to instruct him.

Of course, it will be difficult, but it will be a sacrifice. But Christ tells us “if you love me first deny yourself and pick up your cross daily and follow me.” Remember it was difficult for Christ to hang on the cross for three hours and it was the supreme sacrifice when He died for us. This is what Christ has done for you. Can’t you give just a few minutes a week as an active member of your parish Community of Christian Doctrine?

The Priestly, Prophetic, and Kingly Mission of Christ and Share In The Kingdom Of Christ Here On Earth

The gospels of our Diocese do not only mean to help save our world. We do not need a spiritual renewal in order to save our world. We do need a spiritual renewal in order to understand the command of Christ to “Go teach.” He did not mean to have apostles “teach” within the limits of an instrumentality of other human beings by saying “God has drawn you to Himself as His child.”

Did you become like your neighbor you will be rewarded; and for the good you do not do, you will be called to account, as well as the blunders, mistakes or sins that we have committed.

The Catholic Hospital Plan

Differs From Ordinary Health Insurance

What is unusual about the new Catholic Hospital Plan—and why it should be especially important to you?

As a Catholic, it is your opportunity to go to a Catholic hospital when sickness strikes or accidents make. There you can count on receiving medical treatment that is in accordance with the ethical and religious directives of the Church. Of course, the Catholic Hospital Plan cannot guarantee you admission to a hospital. However, by paying money directly to you instead of to the hospital, it guarantees you the right to choose your own hospital. And even if you enter a non-Catholic Hospital, you will be covered under the Catholic Hospital Plan, but your benefits are actually greater if you go to a Catholic Hospital.

You may agree Catholics should be encouraged to go to Catholic hospitals, but you may already have some hospital insurance and may be wondering—why do I need more?

Because no matter what other insurance you now carry, it simply won't cover everything!

Think for a moment—in these days of rising medical costs, would your present insurance-cover all your hospital bills? Even if one of your covered family members has suffered from chronic ailments in the past, the kinds of conditions that can come back again and again or are likely to recur, the Catholic Hospital Plan will cover these pre-existing conditions after your policy has been in force for 10 months. And if you have no children, or if your children are grown and no longer dependent on you, you will want the Husband-Wife Plan. Or, if you are living by yourself, choose the Individual Plan.

On all plans, your cash benefits are paid from the very first day you enter the hospital, for as long as—and for as many times—as you have the maximum (Aggregate of Benefits) of the plan you select.

Special Note If You Are Over 65

Even though Medicare will pay most of your hospital expenses—it still will not cover all of your needs. During your senior years, you may find the extra cash protection needed during the high-risk senior years simply by filling out the Enrollment Form at the right without any other qualifications!

It's a fact that people over 65 are greater risks. They go to hospital more often and have larger hospital bills than any other age group. That's exactly why the Catholic Hospital Plan not only accepts you regardless of age, it gives you extra-care protection that is within your means. If you are over 65 now, or when you become 65, the following applies:

This is the only insurance that can ever be made as long as you continue your policy on time.

Female on All-Family or Husband-Wife Plan... $2.25
Female on One-Parent or Individual Plan... 3.00
Male on any Plan... 3.00

Are Your Parents Senior Citizens?

Most senior citizens guard against becoming a "burden." But too often their insurance doesn't meet today's high hospital bills. The Catholic Hospital Plan not only accepts your own children, but also your parents and grandparents during your senior years. It assures you protection that is within your means.

How Your "Health-Bank Account" Grows Each Month

Here's a wonderful benefit, no matter which plan you choose, almost like an extra "Bank Account." When your policy is issued, your insurance provides up to $10,000, $7,500, or $5,000—according to the Plan you choose. This is your "Health-Bank Account." Then, every month your policy is in force, an amount equal to your regular monthly premium (including your first month) is actually added to your maximu—when you have claims, your benefits are simply sub-tracted from your account—much like putting money in and taking it out of the bank.

Accidental Death Benefit—Paid To Your Parish

In the event of the accidental death of any covered under the Catholic Hospital Plan, $500 will be paid to the covered person's parish, subject to the maximum (Aggregate of Benefits) of your policy. If you wish to name a beneficiary other than your parish, check the box on your Enrollment Form and a change form will be sent to you alongside your policy.

Special Feature for Peace of Mind and Security

For as long as you live and continue to pay your premiums, we will never cancel or refuse to renew your policy for health reasons—and we guarantee we will never cancel, modify or terminate your policy renewal on all policies of this type in your entire state or until the maximum (Aggregate of Benefits) of your policy has been paid.

Carry As Much Other Health Insurance

Yes, the Catholic Hospital Plan pays you in addition to any health insurance you carry, whether individual or group—even Medicare Furthermore, all your benefits are tax-free!

Surprisingly Low-Cost

Membership in the Catholic Hospital Plan costs considerably less than you might expect. You pay only $1.00 for your first month's coverage (regardless of your plan), then only $7.95 a month for the All-Family Plan; only $5.95 a month for the One-Parent Family Plan; only $5.75 for the Husband-Wife Plan; and the Individual Plan costs only $3.50 a month. (When you turn 65, $5.75 a month for the One-Parent Family Plan; $7.50 for the Husband-Wife Plan; and the Individual Plan costs only $3.50 a month.)

SPECIAL NOTE IF YOU ARE OVER 65

Even though Medicare will pay most of your hospital expenses—it still will not cover all of your needs. During your senior years, you may find the extra cash protection needed during the high-risk senior years simply by filling out the Enrollment Form at the right without any other qualifications!

El Padre Angel Marín
La intención destrabada por el Padre Paulo VI a los miembros del apostolado de la oración para el próximo mes de octubre, es "la Iglesia Católica parece ante todos nosotros una verdad y un mensaje", dijo Jesucristo ante el Tribunal que le condenó a la miseria, por haber dicho la verdad más grande, que jamás nadie pudo prever: "Yo soy el Hijo de Dios".

Jesucristo es la Verdad por excelencia, que en el conocimiento de la verdad infinita del Señor Inmaculado, se hace eco y portadora de la verdad, y que tiene ese poder de transformar, ser aquellos, el que deviene, para así poder llegar a ser: "Yo soy la verdad y para este hecho venido al mundo, para dar testimonio de la verdad", dijo Jesucristo ante el Tribunal que le condenó a la miseria, por haber dicho la verdad más grande, que jamás nadie pudo prever: "Yo soy el Hijo de Dios".

El Padre Angel Marín

La verdad es dinámica, vive, es vida, es caridad, lo que si la Iglesia es el sostén de la verdad, es que no puede ser un instrumento adecuado, una institución, un estado, una nación que fue la conciencia del mundo, la columna y sustent de la verdad, el testimonio viviente, que, como alvador de Dios, se hiciere en el mundo y portadora de las enseñanzas de Jesucristo en medio de los hombres de todos los tiempos.

La verdad que animó a Cristo y a la Iglesia en su misión, no es la verdad científica, sino una exigencia de justicia, de equidad y amor, que, como alvador de Dios, se hiciere en el mundo y portadora de las enseñanzas de Jesucristo en medio de los hombres de todos los tiempos.

Says She Kissed Married Man

THE FAMILY CLINIC

By JOHN J. KANE, Ph. D.
(Faculty of Sociology, University of Notre Dame)

At a recent party I met a married man, and although I am married myself, exchanged a few kisses with him. I know I was wrong. I'm sorry for my sin, but don't know how to confess it. I keep recalling it, and I fear I do not want to forget it. I haven't even this man since, but I know somehow I shall run into him and want to do the same thing again. What can I do about it?

I find it very difficult to answer your letter, Anna, cause I'm not certain how to interpret it. You write of having exchanged a few kisses and from the rest of your statement, it would appear that the kisses were scarcely in the form of a “friendly” greeting.

In your opinion they were sinful. At the same time you seem to have a full realization of just what happened. You likewise know you should avoid this man, so my guess is that you are somewhat infuriated with him. In fact, I rather suspect you hope to see him again, even though you realize the same thing may occur.

I hope you will not consider me unchivalrous when I ask whether you think he has any desire to see you again. Try to sum up a little objective about the matter. You were at a party, perhaps both of you were drinking, so inhibitions were let down.

For him it may have been a spur of the moment business which he has already forgotten.

There Are Many Questions

Behind it all are many questions. Are you unhappily married? You say nothing about this. You do not even mention your husband. I wonder why.

Unfortunately, persons who have been married a long time may be inclined to take each other for granted. Perhaps this is more true of men than women. Psychologically, women do tend to be more involved romantically in marriage than most men. Their lives are centered around their husbands, their children and their homes.

As a result when a woman is shown attention by other men, she may take it far more seriously than the man tends. I am inclined to believe this is just what happened to you.

Then a whole chain reaction is set off. What may have begun as an impudent act facilitated by liquor becomes something sacred and significant with some women. You admit that you don’t want to forget it. Why? The reason is that dwelling on it has done two things. First, it has built it up out of all proportion. You are probably making a triviality, treasuring it that you don’t want to forget it. Why? The reason is that dwelling on it has done two things. First, it has built it up out of all proportion. You are probably making a triviality, treasuring it that you don’t want to forget it. Why? The reason is that dwelling on it has done two things. First, it has built it up out of all proportion. You are probably making a triviality, treasuring it that you don’t want to forget it.

Spurs Your Imagination

Second, your constant thinking of it spurs your imagination to expand the desire and pleasure of the experience well beyond what it really was. As the date of the party recedes, your mind is filled with images.

Obviously, you ought to forget it. When the memory plagues you, try to think of something else. This is not easy. But neither is it impossible. Engage in activity which will demand your attention, read, work, shop or whatever to drive the memory from your mind.

Prayer will help you far more than you may believe for in reality you are dealing with a temptation. One never gets rid of temptation by dwelling on it. Furthermore, if none of this works, you should seek some help.

One very clear and available method of getting help is through the Sacrament of Penance. You say you don’t know how to confess what you did. What do you mean? There is no esoteric formula for confession. It is not limited to certain kinds of specific words. Simply tell the priest what you wrote.

Finally, don’t think of all this as a catastrophe. As you have described it, it is far from that. But you are making it worse by your imagination. The sooner you go to confession, the sooner these guilt feelings will cease to overwhelm you.

'Whiplash' Scores

There is much more that cannot or should not be told. One can and should tell the story of the Billy Wilder... Diamond script works out almost light back in the high plateau of comedy he left for "Stupid."... Negro Ron Rich, as the ball player responsible (he thinks!) for Harry's neck injury, makes quite a bit. So does Judi West as the former make when Harry (being accident-prone) almost wins back. If Lemmon and Matthey care to set up a merry new Hollywood comedy team, they have made it.

New Film Code Is Praised
By Official

NEW YORK — (NC) — The chairman of the Catholic bishops’ Committee for Motion Pictures has recommended the new production code of the Motion Picture Association of America while stressing that the film industry has a solemn duty to live up to its principles.

Archbishop John J. Krol of Pa. (phia also suggested that, “...Thomas F. Little, executive secretary of the National Catholic Office for Motion Pictures (the former Legion of Decency),” had been released from that post to accept a pastorate in N.Y., N.Y.

Msgr. Little became assistant executive secretary of the National Catholic Office for Decency in 1947 and executive secretary in 1950. During his tenure the agency has adopted new categories for its moral evaluations to accommodate more mature films and film audiences and has expanded its efforts in film education.

Archbishop Krol praised Msgr. Little for his “constructive influence” on films and film audiences. “His achievements will continue to serve as the firm basis of the Church’s film apostolate,” he said.

The new code, announced Sept. 20 by Motion Picture Association president Jack Valenti, provides for a voluntary classification system under which certain films would be labeled as “recommended” for mature audiences.

It also replaces the old code’s detailed set of do’s and don’ts with broad moral guidelines for film subject matter. Protection for the adoption of the new code was increased by two recent films — “Who’s Afraid of Virginia Woolf?” and “A Number which originally denied the code seal of approval and later granted approval by a review board.

Both movies were rated A-4 — morally unacceptable for adults, with reservations.

By William H. Mooring

Jack Valenti’s new, Ten-Point movie code, is no substitute for the original Code of moral and ethical rules (and reasons) based, in the 1930s, on Commandments. As forecast here two weeks ago it offers soothing syrup to disturbed public authorities; proposes to label certain movies “Suggested for Mature Audiences” and then puts on parents the sole moral responsibility for showing to children, films no decent society would permit them to see. This form of “classification” does not even face up to an acceptable age of “maturity.”

Members of the Motion Picture (Producers) Association of America now subscribing to this code, request but do not attempt to and other “independent” producers to consider or observe the code. It is not even clear that they are going to see that affiliated companies they themselves have sponsored and now seek, submit their films for a Code seal of approval. Some of these “affiliates” distribute here in the USA, many of the most degrading shows, foreign and American, on the market.

The language of the new code sounds sincere. However, there are no practical definitions by which to determine what a particular movie is or is not in violation of any of the Code’s Ten Points.

Jack Valenti is quoted as telling the New York press that “archetypical prohibitions have been dropped in favor of a commonsense document which “tries to preserve the values of society in play.” This is misleading to say the least.

WHERE, OH WHERE?

“Obscene speech, gestures or movements shall not be presented,” says the new code. The “undue profanity shall not be permitted.” Where would this leave “Virginia Woolf?”
