Preliminary plans for a Diocesan Senate of Priests were mapped out during the Fall clergy conference held at the Diocese of Miami Seminary.

Bishop Coleman F. Carroll, speaking to the conference assembled for the one-day meeting, quoted from the Mose Precepto Ecclesiae (2000) of Pope Paul VI in August in which the Holy Father spoke of the need to establish a council of priests to be known as a Senate and also a Pastoral Council.

SENATE PURPOSE

Purpose of the Senate is to assist the bishop in governing the Diocese

and to promote the overall welfare of the Church.

Parochial discussion of the conference focused on the presentation and proposals from the floor were concerned primarily with a workable constitution outlining the objectives and scope of the Senate. Members of the clergy indicated that they had not yet had the opportunity to study for senators, but offered to vote for a temporary minority whose purpose is to draft a constitution.

When drafted, copies of the constitution will be distributed to all priests for their suggestions. It is a major step in favor of the constitution, it will be accepted and forwarded to the bishop for his approval.

The drawing-up of this constitution was left completely to the priests by Bishop Carroll who reminded them that they are expected to act in accordance with the directives of the Holy Father to establish the diocese Senate.

Seminarians of the various canonical deaneries in the Diocese of Miami were elected to serve on the constitution committee with the five deaneries of the various districts.

Included are: Msgr. John T. O'Dowd, V. F., Father Frederick Wess, Father James J. Walsh, Bishop Carroll's vicar substitute of the parish, Father Barry, now in the 57th year of his priesthood, has been a champion of Catholic education, as well as the guide to the school, he is the bestknown priests in the United States and recognized every where for his accomplishments.

GAVE HIS ALL

"In the primary example, he gave all his life, in his dedication to missionary and parochial work in the Church, in his struggle for justice and aid for the poor, no one has surpassed him in our midst," Bishop Carroll said. "Msgr. Barry bridged two generations in the history of the parish and has been with us for more than 40 years."

NEW CHURCH

The new St. Cecilia Church will celebrate its dedication today with a new structure designed by Fort Myers architect, Gundersen and Wilcoxson, and built on property adjacent to Bishop Verot High School.

The downtown church, which will share its campus with Verot High School, is separated into three main parts: the main nave, tower, and side nave. Non-Catholics Petition Pope On Birth Issue

NEW YORK (NC) - Eighty-five of the world's leading non-Catholic religious leaders and scientists signed a statement presented to Pope Paul VI urging his participation "in forging new converts" in the "vital matter" of the "moral imperatives of regulating birth.

The statement was prepared by Dr. John C. Bennett, a professor of philosophy at Notre Dame University here, and Edward L. Tatum, Nobel laureate, of Rockefeller University here. Dr. Bennett announced receipt of the statement, which has been acknowledged by Archbishop Angelo Pellico, papal secretary here, and Father Henry Brown, papal address secretary of state for ordinary affairs.

STATEMENT RELEASED

Dr. Bennett said the statement originally was circulated to 150 religious leaders and scientists and 85 signed the petition. He said originally it was planned not to release the statement publically, but "Dr. Tatum and I now deem it in the public interest to release this statement for the public record."

The statement asserted that the moral issues were aware of the Pope's "sensitive position on responsible parenthood and concern for avoidance of population crisis while it is still manageable on the basis of the natural and Christian science formed by principles of Employers, to whom the Pope spoke in French.

VATICAN CITY (NC) - The Church hopes to find in employees honesty, competence and a social sense, Pope Paul VI told a group of Portuguese businessmen.

Another recommendation which "possibly conditions the success of all the others," he said "is to find unity!" The audience was composed of 40 leaders of the Portuguese Catholic Union of Employers, to whom the Pope spoke in French.

"Honesty means a conscience which is in conformity with the scientific and industrial progress, and this implies that those who run the business must forget that it is above all a business directed by men, with the help of men, and at the service of men. It is a means for attaining moral over-all progress, and this Church implies that those who run it always bear in mind human implications of their task."

Bishops Stand Beside Pope In Peace Hopes

By MSGR. GEORGE S. HIGGINS

WASHINGTON (CNS) — Bishops from the Southeastern Diocese of the United States have endorsed the Catholic Church's position on peace and have expressed support for Pope Paul VI in his efforts to bring about an end to the Vietnam War.

The bishops, in a joint statement released today, said they are "deeply concerned" about the continued suffering and destruction caused by the war and called for "a just and lasting peace." They also called for "a moratorium on all military operations in Vietnam, as a first step toward a negotiated settlement of the conflict." They added that "the time has come for all parties to the conflict to resume negotiations in good faith on the basis of a just and lasting peace." The bishops concluded by saying that "the Church in the United States will continue to pray for peace and to work for its attainment."

SANTORI DE LA SEMANA

Enfrentamiento Cristiano a Economía de Bienestar

En el año 1966, el Papa Pío XII publicó una encíclica llamada "Evangelii Hominum", en la que expresaba su preocupación por el creciente poder de las fuerzas económicas en el mundo occidental. La encíclica se centraba en la idea de que la economía no debería ser prioritaria sobre el bienestar social y moral de la gente. La encíclica llamaba a los cristianos a defender su fe contra el creciente poder de la economía.

La encíclica tenía una serie de propuestas, como:

- La necesidad de considerar el trabajo como un bien en sí mismo, no como una fuente de ganancias.
- La responsabilidad de los cristianos de utilizar su riqueza para el bienestar de todos.
- La necesidad de proteger la vida y la familia como valores sagrados.
- La importancia de la justicia social en la economía.

Pío XII también llamó a los cristianos a defender la fe contra el creciente poder de la economía. En su encíclica, expresó su deseo de que los cristianos se unieran en la lucha contra la "corrupción" de la sociedad moderna.

La encíclica "Evangelii Hominum" es considerada una de las más importantes de la Iglesia Católica en el siglo XX. Ha influido en la posterior encíclica "Rerum Novarum" de Papa Pío IX, publicada en 1891, que fue un documento fundamental en el desarrollo de la teología social de la Iglesia.

La encíclica "Evangelii Hominum" sigue siendo relevante hoy en día, especialmente en el contexto de la globalización y la crisis económica actual. La encíclica llama a los cristianos a mantener fierta la fe y a defenderla contra el creciente poder de la economía.
Progreso de Guatemala

Por Manolo Reyes

La República de Guatemala, como en otras ocasiones, se encuentra con las guerrillas continuamente a su espalda, es una realidad que debe enfrentar el país. El terrorismo y el extorsionismo están presentes en todo el país, afectando a todas las regiones. Es necesario tomar medidas decididas para enfrentar esta situación.

Mientras grupos revolucionarios se preparan para el ataque, la comunidad internacional debe unirse para apoyar a Guatemala en su lucha contra el terrorismo.

El diálogo es la clave para resolver el conflicto. La participación del gobierno, las Fuerzas Armadas y las organizaciones sociales es esencial para encontrar una solución a largo plazo.

La paz es el camino hacia el desarrollo sostenible y la prosperidad para todos los habitantes de Guatemala. Es fundamental que todos trabajemos juntos para lograrlo.

A Holy Day Of Special Import To Diocese

By JOHN J. WARD

Catholics of South Florida have an interest and compelling interest in the Feast of the Immaculate Conception, which will be observed next week, on Thursday, Dec. 8.

Our Lady of the Immaculate Conception is the patroness of the United States of America and of the Diocese of Miami.

It was 110 years ago that the Bishops of the United States declared this octave to Mary, and eight years ago Bishop Gerald J. Carroll consecrated the newly-erected Diocese to Our Lady's Immaculate Conception.

DOGMA ISSUED

The dogma of the Immaculate Conception was issued by Pope Pius IX, 133 years ago, in 1854, which he declared as infallible truth that from "the first moment of her conception, by a singular grace and privilege granted by Almighty God, the Most Blessed Virgin Mary was preserved free from all stain of original sin." This was in response to a movement of the religious orders of women to offer Mass.

St. Alphonsus, in his book "History of the Holy Sacrament," expresses the desire of the religious orders that the Immaculate Conception should be the object of a special day of devotion.

That was the source of the devotion, immediately upon its elevation.

Conferences For Religious

One-day conferences for religious orders are planned by Barry College for Saturday, Dec. 10, on the campus.

Speakers will include Father William J. O'Neill, dean of the graduate program in theology at Catholic University; and Dr. Beatrice Sloan, chief of the graduate program in education at the South Florida State Hospital.

"The Religious Life: Education for Change," will be the topic of Father Hill, who is the editorial writer of "The Thomist" and author of several religious books.

Dr. Sloan, a psychiatrist, will present "Religion: The Psychology of the Religious Woman."

All Sisters in South Florida have been invited to attend the conferences.

Cardinal Will Play Santa

LOS ANGELES — Two hundred children from several orphanages and foster homes will be guests of honor at James Francis Cardinal McIntyre's annual Christmas party for children, Dec. 11.

The ball, which starts at 8 p.m., will be entertained by Lawrence Welk and members of his company.

A special invitation is being sent to join the party, their dona- tion to "The Hour of Precision" to Catholics here to provide Christmas aid to hundreds of poor families.

On Secretariat

Washington, D.C. — Pope Paul VI has appointed Archbishop John J. McIntyre of Miami, Archbishop of Kansas City, and Bishop of the Vatican Secretariat for Non-Believers.

Feast of Immaculate Conception Dec. 8

The day before Christmas, the Feast of Immaculate Conception, is an opportunity for everyone to give thanks for the greatest gift God has ever given to a human. In repaying Him this honor, we also recognize the gift of a human being given by God to a woman, and the gift of Our Lady herself, the Blessed Virgin Mary, who is our companion in life, and one who has always had a place in our hearts.

The most fitting way of expressing our gratitude for this gift is by observing the feast in a way that is appropriate to its greatness. This can be done by attending Mass, praying in church, or by giving alms to the poor.

The feast of the Immaculate Conception is a time for reflection on the meaning of the Incarnation, and for the celebration of the Virgin Mary's role in the salvation of the world. It is a time to remember the suffering of those who have been and continue to be in need of our prayers and support.

This feast is a reminder of the importance of the Virgin Mary in the life of the Church and the world, and of the need for every Christian to follow her example in service to others.

NEW YORK (N) — Four American theologians will discuss the meaning and place of God in contemporary society on the Catholic Hour radio programs on the four Sundays of December. The four-part series is titled: "An Affirmation of God." The Catholic Hour is produced by the National Council of Catholic Men and aired on the NBC network. Perhaps the best thing he said about ARC's "Stage '67" was: "If you can keep one coming back each week after week to week to week, then this has turned up next. And perhaps when it has turned up next then there is talk about it is that there was something subtle and not, dispositions, rather. It was the sort of thing that one would have been led to according to the conversationalist but who then small audience" to be a bit of a bore. Joan Of Arc Film Slated

"JOAN OF ARC" by Carl Theodore Dreyer with the presentation of the Barry College Film Series and will be shown in Founder's Hall at 7:00 p.m., Thursday June 1.

The film, originally produced for the general public at a nominal charge, is a rich source of information on the martyr-saint, Santiago, and of his Christian mission against the "frontier hypothesis," however, may not be more sharply critical than with many other TV plays (St. James), and of his Christian mission against the...
SUNDAY MASS TIMETABLE

We Are Practicing True Charity?

By MSGE. R. T. BASTATTER
Auxiliary Bishop-Catholic Charities

In the spirit of thanksgiving and with the Assumption of Our Lady now engaging our attention and devotion, don’t you agree that tonight, when we close our bedroom doors, it is fitting and proper, as we kneel down to say our prayers, first we ask a question?

First — why charity?

Second — do we really practice charity or just pretend to practice true charity or has it become a more of less hum drum part of our lives?

The answer to the first question is given to us by Saint Paul in one of his epistles to the Corinthians when he wrote, ... if I have prophecy, and know all the mysteries, and all knowledge, and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing ... shall fail away.

ANSWER TO SECOND

In answering the second question, if we are frank and honest with our own consciences, we must admit that many of us have treated

... the many charitable institutions that are so necessary due to our War on Poverty, with a benevolence that is inadequate to bring about what is necessary.

... or to under-privileged nations.

But let us not overlook our own dependent. Our charity must begin at home.

It is fitting and proper, as we kneel down to say our prayers, first we ask a question?

... charity never faileth.

... charity never faileth.

... the many charitable institutions that are so necessary due to our War on Poverty, with a benevolence that is inadequate to bring about what is necessary.

... or to under-privileged nations.

But let us not overlook our own dependent. Our charity must begin at home.

It is fitting and proper, as we kneel down to say our prayers, first we ask a question?

Script Of Passion Play To Be Scanned For Bias

BONN, Germany - (NC) - Conference between the Vatican Council and the Stuhl Benedikti-des-bury has been arranged for a review of a century-old script for the Passion Play in light of the Second Vatican Council, according to the statement said.

Father Schaller has been designated Father Thomas Schaller, O.S.B., as the monastic to discuss the project with the Vatican. Father Schaller has worked out details for the Schaller's study of the script for anti-Semitic overtones. Oberammergau's Mayor Ernst Zwick said the conference is being arranged with the approval of First Baptist Church of Munich.

CALL FOY BOYCE

This development follows a call issued by the American Jewish Congress for a review of the play on the ground that its text was "intensely anti-Semitic." In an interview with the Gamma Theta News agency, Father Schaller said that a new Passion Play is possible because the present play was a 300-year-old reworking of the play's historical development.

He said revisions would be made on the script side of the stage such as differing from the stage of the colleague of the A旗下.

Father Schaller said the "cost" and "cost" means nothing in the 1860 Dalsenberg and "cost" means nothing in the 1860 Dalsenberg. He said that it was never the purpose of the Oberammergau people to attack Jews. He stated that revisions that might be regarded as "objectionable should be understood in the framework of the play's development.
