Archbishop Thomas Wenski

Easter 2011

One death into the new life of Easter dawn, which brings us out of the darkness of our own once again the great 'yes' of Jesus and our baptismal promise: We make our own lives through the renewal of ourselves in the power of that love in the power of love.

On Easter Sunday, we recommit through the love of power, but by the our salvation — Christ saves us not stronger than death, that good does stronger than death, that life is
and resurrection, we see that love

April 2011

YOUR COMMUNITY,
YOUR FAITH, YOUR LIFE.

OF MIAMI

FLORIDA CATHOLIC
Several hundred hours on first-ever Recognition Weekend
Hundreds go to confession throughout Archdiocese, taking advantage

Your Miami Community
April 2017

Please, me, Father, for I have sinned.
Obedezcamos a voluntad de Dios
Fostering a broader perspective

Catholic, Protestant graduate students interact at St. Thomas University’s new Ecumenical Institute

TOM TRACY
Florida Catholic correspondent

MIAMI GARDENS — Interfaith education that prepares students for ministerial leadership in the Church is now a reality at St. Thomas University. The new Ecumenical Institute was inaugurated in 2008 and welcomed its first students this fall.

The institute is a new partnership between St. Thomas University’s School of Theology and Ministry (formerly the Basilian Institute) and the School of Arts, Sciences and Social Sciences.

The school’s mission is to provide a secure environment for the study and practice of interfaith dialogue and cross-cultural understanding.

The school offers a Master of Divinity degree and a Master of Arts in Pastoral Studies.

Students interested in pursuing a degree in the field of interfaith education should contact the School of Theology and Ministry at St. Thomas University.

The school is located on the university’s campus in Miami Gardens. For more information, visit www.stthomas.edu or call (305) 470-6000.

James Conley, interim dean of the Biscayne College of Liberal Arts and Sciences and vice president of the university, said the school is a unique opportunity for students interested in interfaith education.

"Our goal is to provide a safe and supportive environment for students to learn about and engage with people of different faiths," Conley said.

The school offers courses in interfaith dialogue, cross-cultural understanding and religious studies.

Students interested in pursuing a degree in the field of interfaith education should contact the School of Theology and Ministry at St. Thomas University.

The school is located on the university’s campus in Miami Gardens. For more information, visit www.stthomas.edu or call (305) 470-6000.

For additional information on St. Thomas University’s Ecumenical Institute, call 305-470-6000 or e-mail akonal@stthomas.edu.

Resurrection

Relevant articles

1. Morningstar

2. Your Miami Community

April 20

The Easter celebration was a moment of hope and renewal, as believers reflected on the resurrection of Jesus Christ. This religious observance serves as a reminder of the power of faith and the promise of new beginnings.

In our community, the tradition of attending an Easter service at a local church is a popular choice. Many families gather to listen to inspiring sermons and sing hymns, celebrating the sacrifice and resurrection of Jesus.

Churches across the region have prepared special Easter services tailored to their congregations. Some use traditional music, while others incorporate contemporary elements to engage younger generations.

In addition to church services, there are various community events that bring people together to celebrate. These events may include egg hunts, Easter parades, and festive meals where families gather to share a meal and spend quality time with loved ones.

Offerings of joy and gratitude are a common theme as people reflect on the significance of the event. Whether through prayer, song, or artistic expression, the celebration of the resurrection is a touching reminder of the hope and love that defines our faith.

In conclusion, Easter serves as a significant milestone in the Christian faith, symbolizing the triumph over death and the promise of eternal life. It is a time for introspection, reflection, and renewal, wherein we celebrate the enduring spirit of our faith and the hope it brings into our lives.
EXTENDED NOW ONLY!

THROUGH MAY 8 ONLY!

SPLENDORS
VATICAN
Precedes
Holy Cross Carpet

Great Easter City!
Tips for Protecting Children from Sexual Abuse

1. Teach children about body safety:
   - Explain that their body is their own and no one should touch them in a way that makes them feel uncomfortable.

2. Be a role model:
   - Show respect for others' bodies and boundaries.

3. Keep lines of communication open:
   - Encourage children to talk about their feelings and express themselves.

4. Respect children’s boundaries:
   - Listen to their concerns and take them seriously.

5. Seek help if needed:
   - Don’t hesitate to seek professional help if you suspect abuse.

Our Promise To

April is Child Abuse Prevention Month.
abuse accusations in 2010

Report: Only seven credible

FROM 190

Our Promise To You!

April is Child Abuse Prevention Month

PHOTOFINES

Your Miami Community
Spirit of Taze
In the prayer

Songs and Prayer
Forming better families

EnOUNTERs Fastermars 40 years of ministry to more than 10,000 couples and 20,000 children
Many hands help bring roses to moms

Florists and growers: a wealth of options for mother's day bouquets

Your Community

Your Meridian

Many hands help bring roses to moms.